United States wins NORCECA Men's Continental Championship

MONCTON, Canada, September 16, 2026. – The United States had to go the distance to beat Canada in the NORCECA Men's Continental Championship final.

Team USA won the championship match 3-2 (25-19, 26-24, 25-27, 17-25, 15-13) to earn the continental crown Wednesday at the Avenir Centre in Moncton, Canada.

Canada – along with Cuba, Dominican Republic and Mexico – will compete in the final NORCECA qualification stage Friday, with a Los Angeles 2028 Olympic Games spot to be decided Saturday. Team USA is already qualified as Olympic host.

With that upcoming Olympic qualification in mind, Canada used Wednesday's game as an opportunity to rest some top players while others gained valuable international experience. The Canadians started well, holding early leads of 8-7, 9-8 and 10-9 before Team USA gradually took control to win the first set. The Americans got out to a 17-13 lead in the second set, but Canada battled back to pull ahead 21-20. The teams exchanged points until the United States won on their second set point thanks to a big block by Jake Hanes.

The Canadians continued to make Team USA work in the third set. Canada survived set point at 24-23, then won a pair of exciting rallies on Xander Wassenaar Ketrzynski kills to stay alive with a 27-25 win. The home team rode that momentum into the fourth set, delighting the crowd with a decisive 25-17 win to force the tiebreaker.

The fifth set was a back-and-forth affair. The exuberant fans cheered every Canadian point, but it wasn't enough to will the home team to victory, as Jacob Pasteur's kill clinched the win.

With 26 points, Wassenaar Ketrzynski was the top scorer in the match between previously undefeated teams, which ran two hours and 20 minutes. Skyler Varga chipped in 14 points, including a match-high four blocks. Zachary Hollands led the way with 18 digs and Max Elgert had 48 running sets.

Hanes and Matthew Anderson, with 18 each, were Team USA's top scorers. The Americans had the advantage in attacks (64-55) and aces (7-4) while Canada led the stat sheet in blocks (12-5).

Micah Ma'a, Team USA: "It's a crazy battle. I'm glad that the people here hopefully enjoyed it. We definitely enjoyed it. It wasn't the prettiest for us at times but they're a really good team and a really deep team as you saw tonight. Whatever lineup they put out there is going to be able to compete, and it was a fight."

Karch Kiraly, USA head coach: "Canada, that was their second unit and they put on a great fight. Xander was amazing the last three sets and we really struggled to slow him down. But some guys came in and gave us a really nice lift: Cole Hartke and Matt Knigge and especially Jacob Pasteur who killed the last ball. I'm really happy for those guys and this is a wonderful way to end a long, challenging but rewarding 2026 season for the USA men's national team."

Dan Lewis, Canada coach: "This has been obviously a wild summer of many moving parts, but one part that has always been there is the consistency of the play, especially with the younger guys. I'm so bloody proud of them. They fight so hard and they never, ever stop. They don't quit, they don't give up, they continue to search for solutions. This really is enjoyable to watch and that younger group is going to arrive at the highest level of international volleyball player. It's just moments away for them. They did exactly what we needed to do today, which was play at a high international level, give ourselves an opportunity to win and prepare them."

Estados Unidos gana el Campeonato Continental NORCECA Masculino

MONCTON, Canadá, 16 de septiembre de 2026.- Estados Unidos tuvo que llegar hasta el quinto set para derrotar a Canadá en la final del Campeonato Continental NORCECA Masculino.

El equipo estadounidense ganó el partido por el título 3-2 (25-19, 26-24, 25-27, 17-25, 15-13) para coronarse campeón continental este miércoles en el Avenir Centre de Moncton, Canadá.

Canadá, junto con Cuba, República Dominicana y México, competirá el viernes en la fase final de clasificación olímpica de NORCECA, en la que se definirá el sábado un boleto a los Juegos Olímpicos de Los Ángeles 2028. Estados Unidos ya está clasificado como país anfitrión de los Juegos Olímpicos.

Con la próxima clasificación olímpica en mente, Canadá aprovechó el encuentro del miércoles para dar descanso a algunos de sus principales jugadores, mientras otros adquirían valiosa experiencia internacional. Los canadienses comenzaron bien, con ventajas de 8-7, 9-8 y 10-9, antes de que Estados Unidos tomara gradualmente el control para ganar el primer set. Los estadounidenses se adelantaron 17-13 en el segundo, pero Canadá reaccionó y pasó al frente 21-20. Ambos equipos intercambiaron puntos hasta que Estados Unidos se impuso en su segunda oportunidad de set, gracias a un gran bloqueo de Jake Hanes.

Los canadienses continuaron exigiendo a Estados Unidos en el tercer set. Canadá salvó un punto de partido cuando perdía 24-23 y después ganó dos emocionantes jugadas con ataques de Xander Wassenaar Ketrzynski para mantenerse con vida y llevarse el set 27-25. El equipo anfitrión aprovechó ese impulso en el cuarto, deleitando al público con una contundente victoria de 25-17 que obligó a disputar el quinto set.

El set decisivo fue un intercambio constante de puntos. La entusiasta afición celebró cada punto canadiense, pero su apoyo no fue suficiente para llevar al equipo anfitrión a la victoria, ya que un ataque de Jacob Pasteur aseguró el triunfo de Estados Unidos.

Con 26 puntos, Wassenaar Ketrzynski fue el máximo anotador del encuentro entre dos equipos que llegaban invictos, que tuvo una duración de dos horas y 20 minutos. Skyler Varga aportó 14 puntos, incluidos cuatro bloqueos, la mayor cantidad del partido. Zachary Hollands encabezó las estadísticas con 18 defensas y Max Elgert registró 48 colocaciones efectivas.

Hanes y Matthew Anderson, con 18 puntos cada uno, fueron los máximos anotadores de Estados Unidos. Los estadounidenses tuvieron ventaja en ataque (64-55) y puntos directos de saque (7-4), mientras que Canadá dominó el bloqueo (12-5).

Micah Ma'a, Estados Unidos: "Fue una batalla increíble. Espero que la gente aquí la haya disfrutado. Nosotros definitivamente la disfrutamos. Por momentos no fue nuestro mejor voleibol, pero ellos son un muy buen equipo y tienen mucha profundidad, como se vio esta noche. Cualquier alineación que presenten puede competir, y fue una verdadera batalla".

Karch Kiraly, entrenador de Estados Unidos: "Canadá jugó con su segunda unidad y dio una gran batalla. Xander estuvo increíble en los últimos tres sets y nos costó mucho frenarlo. Pero algunos jugadores entraron y nos dieron un gran impulso: Cole Hartke, Matt Knigge y especialmente Jacob Pasteur, quien anotó el último punto con un ataque. Estoy muy contento por ellos y esta es una manera maravillosa de cerrar una temporada 2026 larga, exigente, pero gratificante para la selección masculina de Estados Unidos".

Dan Lewis, entrenador de Canadá: "Este ha sido, sin duda, un verano intenso, con muchos cambios, pero algo que siempre ha estado presente es la consistencia en el juego, especialmente de los más jóvenes. Estoy sumamente orgulloso de ellos. Luchan con todas sus fuerzas y nunca, nunca se detienen. No se rinden, no bajan los brazos y siguen buscando soluciones. Es realmente un placer verlos jugar, y ese grupo de jóvenes está a punto de alcanzar el máximo nivel del voleibol internacional. Les falta muy poco. Hoy hicieron exactamente lo que necesitábamos: competir a un alto nivel internacional, darnos la oportunidad de ganar y prepararse".
