

Emotions at high level in Boca Chica

BOCA CHICA, Dominican Republic, March 2, 2010 – Cubans Niriam Sinal and Kirenia Ballar won their two matches on the women’s Boca Chica Beach Volleyball Tournament, the third stop of 2010 NORCECA Circuit.

The silver medalists in El Salvador’s stage first edged USA-2 (Cayley Thurlb/Tealle Hunkus) by score of 2-1 (21-18, 12-21, 15-4) and followed with a 2-0 (21-16, 21-17) over Ingrid Morales and Natalia Alfaro of Costa Rica.

The men’s teams of Mexico, Cuba and Dominican Republic were the most successful during day one of the Boca Chica. Mexicans Aldo Miramontes and Juan Virgen, winners in the previous leg in El Salvador, defeated Daniel Erazo/Eric Haddock of Puerto Rico-2 (21-14, 31-9) and Jeovanny Medrano/David Vargas of El Salvador (21-16, 21-9).

Cubans Karell Piña and Sergio Gonzalez topped Gerald Umaña and Yader Gutierrez of Nicaragua (21-15, 21-11) and then downed Mark Lewis/Dany Wilson (21-17, 14-21, 15-10).

The Dominican pair of Yewddys Perez and German Recio beat Costa Ricans Gilberto Villegas/Alexander Villegas (21-15, 21-14) and Puerto Ricans Orlando Irizarry/Joseph Gil (21-15, 21-16).
