when I started playing sports." "It was a real challenge to play under this hot weather," Johsh Binstock said. "But playing in the World Tour really helped very much to stay in shape and in a good mental condition."

Mexico and Cuba, the second and third placed countries in the eight-team event, remain in competition for a chance at the Summer Games as part of the World Cup Qualification Tournament to take place in Moscow, Russia from June 27 to July 1.

The duo of Binstock/Reader sealed the spot to London by prevailing 2-1 (21-17, 11-21, 15-13) in a tough battle against Mexico's Aldo Miramontes and Juan Virgen in the fourth match of the series. Binstock/Reader opened the day with a

Canada seal ticket to London Olympic Games

Mazatlan, Mexico, June 23, 2012 – Canada booked a direct ticket to the men's beach volleyball tournament of the London Olympic Games by defeating Mexico 3-1 in the NORCECA Continental Cup Finals held in Mazatlan, Mexico from June 19 to 23.

"I am so proud about this achievement for my country," Canada's Martin Reader said. "It was a dream since I was 11 years old about going to the Olympic Games
