

Twelve women's duos and fourteen men's combos from Canada, Cayman Islands, Costa Rica, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Guatemala, Honduras, Mexico, Nicaragua, Puerto Rico, Trinidad & Tobago and United States will compete in the first of five legs of the circuit scheduled in Mexico in 2011.

"This is the first stop in Mexico this year and we are pretty sure the organization will be up to the top and also the players will enjoy the traditional hospitality of the people here," Sanchez added.

Last year's winners in Chiapas were Puerto Ricans Yarleen
