North Central American and Caribbean

Confederation, NORCECA www.norceca.org

Newsletter Newsletter

Coaches are ready for the start of U-18 Pan Am Cup

TIJUANA, Mexico, July 2 2011 .— The head coaches of the eight competing teams declared themselves ready for their participation in the First U-18 Girls Pan American Cup that starts this Sunday at the Baja California High Performance Center.

The competition begins with the match between Peru and El Salvador, which will be followed by Argentina facing Costa Rica, while Dominican Republic will play against Puerto Rico.

Prior to the battle between Mexico and experience." Chile, an opening ceremony is scheduled at the official hotel where the coaches in August." were presented and made their statements about their expectations.

tournament is very important for us because is a great preparation to the U18 South America to keep growing together."

teams like Argentina or Mexico, as well with a higher level. But we have the desire preparation."

Our team has very young athletes and of the girls who came here last year to they are living their first International another tournament."

of all the national teams that passed their come with the intention of learning and the U20 tournament in Perú, I think we preliminary interviews on Saturday. develop our teams step by step in the can fight to be in the first places. The After the interviews the local organizing with some players that are in a national united team that caused a good impression committee held a general rehearsal competition, but I think we can prepare in Peru because of that." followed by the General Technical Meeting for the Central American championship experience, but at the same time we habe volleyball." some players with good conditions like World Championship in Turkey, This is a Brayelin Martinez and our libero Winnifer Erik González, Puerto Rico: "This team as to get a good result against Costa Rica. to do our best for our country with some Víctor García, Mexico: "With the level along with a parade with the participation Martín Rodríguez, Costa Rica: "We shown by the group in competitions like area. At this time we cannot count on girls are very enthusiastic. I saw a strong

Manuel Artieda, Peru: "There are great expectations for this tournament, because Wilson Sánchez, Dominican is a great chance for the players in an Republic: "We have a very young team, early age to increase their level and this Guillermo Cáceres, Argentina: "This most of them with a little competition can improve the development of very important chance for Norceca and Fernández, who played recently in Peru." is practically the same that played last year at the Norceca Continental Sady Lopez, El Salvador: "Our Championship and qualified to the U-18 Italo Raggio, Chile: "We have come expectations are focused on participation. World Championship in Turkey, thus the here to play good matches against great We know that we are going to face teams Pan American Cup will be great for our

