2014 NORCECA WOLD CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATION, GROUP Q

LA HABANA, CUBA, MAY 12-18, 2014

Trinitarias, sorprendidas, pero ganaron

LA HABANA, Cuba, 14 de mayo 2014 - Trinidad y Tobago superó a Haití 3-1 en la apertura del Torneo Clasificatorio Femenino Mundial de voleibol Norceca Grupo Q.

No obstante, el joven equipo haitiano sorprendió a sus rivales al arrebatarnos el parcial de apertura 17-25, pero las trinitarias ajustaron su juego para definir sin dificultades y ganar 25-3, 25-9 y 25-12.

"Mis atletas fueron sorprendidas por la forma de ese juego lento, ataques suaves y bajitos, no encontraban la altura del bloqueo y la posición de defensa, pero rectificaron y ahora estoy contento", manifestó Francisco Cruz, director técnico de Trinidad.

Por su parte, Kelly-Anne Billingsy, la capitana que mañana cumple 28 años de edad, de ellos 11 en este deporte, reconoció que comenzaron demasiado lentas.

"Pero es lo que generalmente pasa cuando se espera un gran torneo", aseguró la jugadora que está insertada a la liga francesa.

Anotaron doble dígitos las trinitarias Jاليا Ross-Kydd y Krystle Esdelle, ambas con 12, secundadas por Channon Thompson y Kelly-Anne Billing (10), mientras por las haitianas destacó Esther Joachin (12).

Frederic Francois, DT de Haití, expresó que "sabemos la calidad de las rivales, son atletas hasta con más de 80 y 100 partidos internacionales, las nuestras solo ocho".

Su capitana, Graziella Chery, dijo que "ellas son muy rápidas, pero estamos contentas porque les robamos un set y seguimos aprendiendo".

CUBA VENCÍÓ A CURAZAO SIN CONTRATIEMPOS EN PARCIALES CORRIDOS

LA HABANA, Cuba, 14 de mayo 2014- La selección anfitriona debutó con victoria sobre Curazao en parciales corridos en el choque de cierre de la jornada inaugural del Torneo

Clasificatorio Mundial del grupo Q femenino de la NORCECA con sede en la Ciudad Deportiva.

Aunque las cubanas son las de menor promedio de edad, superan a las visitantes en talla y un juego técnico-táctico más armónico, evidente en su triunfo con parciales de 25-5, 25-17 y 25-18 , aunque por momentos cometieron errores injustificados ante un rival de menor nivel, principalmente en el servicio.

La escolar Melissa Vargas, de solo 14 años de edad, resultó la máxima anotadora del duelo y de la jornada con 16 tantos y le siguió su compañera Jennifer Álvarez, quien agregó 13, únicas con doble dígitos junto a la visitante Christine Anthony (11).

Juan Carlos Gala, director técnico cubano, señaló que "siempre el primer partido es difícil y más para un equipo tan joven, pienso que el saque no estuvo a su altura y es nuestra arma para enfrentar a los demás equipos, pero el triunfo es gratificante y más delante de su público, ante el cual paradójicamente casi nunca juegan".

La central Rosanna Giel, capitana local, reconoció que al equipo le faltó un poco la motivación, "a medida que transcurrió el juego fuimos ganando en confianza, pero eso no debe suceder porque también las contrarias igual se crecen si le das la oportunidad".

Por su parte Henry Delfina, entrenador principal de las visitantes, no vaciló al valorar a Cuba como un equipo mundialista y fuerte. "Mis muchachas se pusieron nerviosas en el primer sets y falló el recibo y más a un rival que saca fuerte, en el resto del encuentro mejoraron pero no lo suficiente para superar a las de casa".

La propia Christine, capitana de Curazao, dijo que "estábamos alteradas realmente, bajó después, pero no jugamos como hemos sabido hacerlo en otras ocasiones, estábamos lentas delante de una selección joven que va a tener un gran futuro".

2014 NORCECA WOLD CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATION, GROUP Q

LA HABANA, CUBA, MAY 12-18, 2014

Haiti seized a set away from Trinidad & Tobago

Havana, Cuba, May 14th, 2014. Trinidad and Tobago achieved to win in the opening match corresponding to the NORCECA Qualification Tournament of the Q Pool for the Women's World Championship by defeating Haiti 3-1.

At the very beginning, the young Haitian squad astonished their opponents by seizing the opening set away from them 25-17. However, from that moment on, the Trinidadians got to adjust their game performance to end the match without major difficulties by winning the following three sets in row 25-3, 25-9 and 25-12.

"My teammates were surprised by the slow game, soft and low spikes. They were not able to find the blocking height and the defense position. Nevertheless finally they rectified their team performance and as a result of it I am happy now", stated Francisco Cruz, Trinidad and Tobago Head Coach.

For her part, Kelly-Anne Billiny, the captain who will be turning into 28 years old tomorrow, 11 of them dedicated to this sport, recognized they started to play too slowly. "It is what usually happens when a team is starting a great tournament", said the player who is taking part in the French league".

The Trinidadians JaliciaRoss-Kydd and Krystle Esdelle, scored double-number figures, both with 12 points, followed by Channon Thompson and Kelly-Anne Billing (10), whereas on the Haitians' side Esther Joachin was who shined(12)

Frederic Francois, the head coach from Haiti, commented "we are really aware of the opponents' quality. They are athletes who have more than 80 and 100 international matches; on the other hand, ours only eight".

Their captain, Graziella Chery, said that "they are quite fast players, but we are satisfied because of having seizing a set away from them and we continue learning".

Cuba defeated Curacao smoothly in three sets in a row

Havana, Cuba, May 14th, 2014. The host team made its debut with a win versus Curacao in three consecutive sets in the closing match on the opening day of the NORCECA Qualification Tournament of the Q Pool for the Women's World Championship which took place in the Ciudad Deportiva Coliseum Arena.

Although among the participating teams Cubans have the youngest age-average, they are taller than their today's opponents and also showed a technical and tactical game more harmonic which was obviously seen throughout the match: 25-5, 25-17 and 25-18.

The school player, Melissa Vargas, just 14 years old, became the best scorer both in the match and on the first competition day by scoring 16 points. She was followed by her teammate Jennifer Álvarez, with 13 points, the only ones players with double digit score, jointly with the visiting player Chirstine Anthony (11).

Juan Carlos Gala, the Cuban head coach, stated "the first match is always difficult and much more for a team so young. The service did not fulfil the expectations and it is precisely our strength in order to meet the other teams. However, the victory is gratifying and especially when it is in front of their fans for whom paradoxically they do not usually play".

The central zone player, Rosanna Giel, local captain, recognized the team lacked a bit of motivation. "As match progressed, we gained confidence. However it must not happen as the opponents may develop their game if given the opportunity".

For his side, Henry Delfina, the visiting team's head coach, did not hesitate to assess Cuba as both a world top-level and strong team. "My girls got nervous in the first set when the service was also a failure and particularly versus an opponent whose service is tough. During the rest of the match, they improved their game but it was not enough to defeat the local ones".

Christine herself, the Curacao's captain, said "we were really nervy, the tension diminished afterwards, but we finally did not play as we have been able to perform in other occasions. We were slow against an opposing team who in spite of being young will have a great future".
