Ferguson stars as Bahamas survives Martinique scare in five sets

CHEM TRENELLE, RIVIERE SALEE, MARTINIQUE, OCTOBER 22, 2016:

Jamaal Ferguson was a surprise joint top scorer for his team as Bahamas survived three match points to overcome Martinique in five sets (3-2) in their Caribbean Zonal Volleyball Association (CAZOVA)/FIVB World Championship Qualifier Men Group A opener.

Ferguson, who normally plays the libero position but was shifted to outside hitter due to the inability of some Bahamian players to travel to Martinique, tallied 23 points along with team captain Princ'tanique Wilson while middle-blocker Byron Ferguson added 17 as they led their team to an entertaining 25-23, 21-25, 25-27, 25-22, 18-16 win over Martinique in two hours and 52 minutes, at the Palais Des Sports Riviere Salee.

Despite playing below their best, Bahamas through the experience of senior players, held the edge on spikes 58-51 and blocks 15-14, but were out-served 2-4 on aces. Both teams also showed signs of lack of proper preparations and committed numerous errors, with Bahamas being credited with 44, and Martinique 39 in the clash of former CAZOVA champions.

For Martinique Yoann Breleur led all scorers with 15 points, 45-year-old captain David Le Favre got 14, and the pair of Gregory Alpha and Rodrigue Larcher chipped in with 13 a piece in the close contest, which had the vociferous crowd on the edge of their seats, throughout, in anticipation of a home win.

Commenting after the match, Le Favre said his team was ready to play a big match against Bahamas, but in the end they came up short. "The match was not that difficult as both teams were not at their best, but in the end we made too many mistakes."

Wilson was quick to admit that his team was not currently at the level of play it was in recent years, but was happy to get the win. "It's our first match in three weeks due to the recent circumstances with Hurricane Matthew, and I must credit Jamaal (Ferguson) for stepping out of his regular position and coming up big for us."

Eddy Erialc, coach of Martinique said that while he was happy to see his team push as hard as it could, he still thought they made crucial errors at the wrong time. "The final result could have gone either way, but it's been more than two years we last played an international match and we have room to improve while Bahamas showed why they were recent Caribbean champions."

Covanc Mortimer, who was making his senior national team coaching debut for Bahamas, was quick to admit that he felt his team escaped with a win. "We came with the expectation of having a tough battle with Martinique and we got more than we wanted."

On Sunday from 10am, Bahamas will play its second and final match against Aruba, while from 7pm, Martinique faces Aruba in the final match.

Looking ahead to his team's first match Daan Kleinbussink, coach of Aruba, which arrived late Saturday night, said his team was a very youthful one which is for the future. "We were stuck in Saint Martin for a day and a half and now we have arrived very tired so we just have to go out and play with our hearts and give our best for a good outcome."
