NEWSLETTER No.3 CASOVA MEN'S WCQT

PARAMARIBO, Suriname, October 31, 2016: Suriname joined Jamaica in the second round of the CAZOVA zonal qualifying series for the 2018 FIVB Men's World Volleyball Championship at the Anthony Nesty Indoor Sports Hall tonight.

The last match of the tournament turned out to best by a long way and the hosts won a nail-biting showdown for the silver medal and second qualifying spot from Group B 23-25, 25-23, 25-19, 23-25, 15-11 over Guadeloupe.

The Surinamese, who had lost to Jamaica the day before after leading by a set and 11-6 in the second, were leading 18-14 and 19-16 on their way to closing it out in four sets.

But nerves crept into the equation and Guadeloupe battled back strongly to force the only fifth set of the six-match tournament.

However, the hosts, ranked fourth in CAZOVA (Caribbean Zonal Volleyball Association) and first in this tournament, never let their disappointment affect their performance in the decider and they led virtually all the way to sneak home in just under two hours.

Kevan Sporkslede had an incredible 35-point tournament high and Zefanio Breinburg (17) and captain Antione Vliet (10) also scored in double figures for the winners.

Skipper Loic Couchy and Alexandre Watson contributed 13 each for the visitors and Kenny Fortune and Rony Sophiyair chipped in with 11 and ten points, respectively.

Jamaica had qualified since the night before and the sixth-ranked team in the CAZOVA put the icing on their cake earlier in the night with a 25-6, 25-7, 25-11 drubbing of rank outsiders Turks & Caicos finish the straight round-robin tournament with the gold medal in grand style.

Not only were they unbeaten, the Jamaicans did not drop a set after losing the first one they played – against Suriname the morning before.

Turks & Caicos, an inexperienced 13th-ranked team comprising two players in their 40s, two just a couple years younger and several more over the age of 30, did not win a set from their three matches and only managed to muster 24 total points tonight, ten less than they had scored against Suriname the night before.

Guadeloupe, ranked tenth in CAZOVA, began the tournament on the back-foot as technical difficulties on their flight to Suriname resulted in a very late arrival.

The Suriname team presented their silver medals to the family of Faisel Molijn, their assistant coach who sadly passed away in a vehicular accident a couple weeks ago.
