Martinique Wins Classic to Qualify

SANTA CRUZ, Aruba, November 27, 2016: Martinique saved two match points en route to winning a five-set thriller and securing the final promotion place in the second round of the CAZOVA qualifying series for the 2018 FIVB Women's World Volleyball Championship.

The lowest ranked of the four teams in the Group B round-robin tournament, nosed out Haiti 17-25, 25-19, 25-23, 23-25, 16-14 in a pulsating contest which has to go down as a classic.

After being ahead for the majority of the deciding set, Martinique lost four straight points with a 12-10 lead to find themselves staring down the barrel of two match points. However the 12th ranked team in the CAZOVA responded in tremendous fashion to capture the last four and claim a sensational victory in two hours and 24 minutes.

Martinique had won three straight points from 20-22 down in the previous set to come within two points of advancing from the third and final first-round qualifying tournament in the zone. However, the 7th-ranked Haitians reeled off the last three points to force the only five-setter of this two-day tournament.

After both teams had lost to Suriname in straight sets and recovered miraculously to defeat Aruba, Haiti seemed well on the way to the next phase when they completely dominated the first set of the do-or-die contest. Martinique was, however, a completely different outfit when they answered the bell for the second set and both teams kept the fans riveted to their seats until the final whistle.

Coach Rene Melinard stated, "it was a final for Martinique; we came here for qualification and we did it." Martinique's captain, Soraya Yazza, confessed, "it was a very difficult match mentally and we are very happy."

Haiti's captain expressed that the many errors made cost them the match. Haiti's coach, Jean Michel Frederic, stated, "unfortunately we could not have closed it out when we had the match points, but that is competition."

The lowest ranked team will join the highest in the second round as Suriname, rated fourth in CAZOVA, won the tournament even before taking the court for the last match against Aruba.

Curacao and United States Virgin Islands (USVI) advanced from Group A in St Croix in early August while Guadeloupe and Bahamas booked their tickets two weeks ago in Grand Cayman from Group C.

The second round will take place in July 2017 and will also include automatic qualifiers Trinidad and Tobago and hosts Jamaica, ranked first and second in CAZOVA, respectively.

The next edition of the Women's World Championship will be contested in Japan in 2018 and NORCECA will have six qualifiers plus the defending champions, the United States.

Gold for Unbeaten Suriname

SANTA CRUZ, Aruba, November 27, 2016: Suriname expectedly remained unbeaten to capture the gold medal in the CAZOVA Group B qualifying tournament for the 2018 FIVB Women's World Volleyball Championship.

However, the highest ranked team in the round-robin tournament surprisingly dropped their only set of the two days in disposing of the cellar-placed Aruba 25-19, 21-25, 25-13, 25-19 in the sixth and final match in 93 minutes.

Suriname, ranked fourth in the CAZOVA, had been assured of the title even before the encounter as they had whipped Haiti and Martinique in their other two matches.

Martinique, at the rear of the field with a ranking of 12, had nosed out No. 7 Haiti in a nail-biting do-or-die five-setter just before for the silver medal and will join Suriname in the second round.

Aruba finished winless from their three matches, but they must have felt that they could have come away with two victories and advanced had they not squandered several sizeable leads at crucial times against both Haiti and Martinique. Still, the tenth-ranked team managed to do what the other two couldn't and captain Jackie Toussaint acknowledged that - "we were the only ones who could take a set from Suriname and we did a good job pushing them."

"Suriname is a very good team. I'm happy we were able to give them good competition after two losses," said Aruba coach Daan Kleinbussink.

"We got the ending we came here for. We came to win the tournament and I'm so thankful and proud of the team," stated Suriname captain Cheryl Brunings, while her coach admitted: "it was hard for us, but we made it and I'm very happy."

This was the final of three qualifying group in the first round of the zone. Curacao and United States Virgin Islands (USVI) advanced from Group A in St Croix in early August while Guadeloupe and Bahamas booked their tickets two weeks ago in Grand Cayman from Group C.

The second round will take place in July 2017 in Jamaica and will also include automatic qualifiers Trinidad and Tobago and hosts Jamaica, ranked first and second in CAZOVA, respectively.

The next edition of the Women's World Championship will be contested in Japan and NORCECA will have six qualifiers, plus defending champions United States.

Hunsel is MVP in Aruba

SANTA CRUZ, Aruba, November 27, 2016: Sandrina Hunsel captured three individual awards after propelling Suriname to the gold medal in the CAZOVA Group B qualifying tournament for the 2018 FIVB Women's World Volleyball Championship tonight.

Suriname won all three matches in the round-robin tournament and then dominated the closing ceremony by picking up eight of the 12 individual prizes.

Hunsel was the Best Scorer as well as one of the two Best Outsider Hitters and the lanky No. 18 also captured the most treasured prize of them all – Most Valuable Player.

Teammate Johnelle Jameson also walked away with three awards as the 16-year-old was voted Best Digger, Best Receiver and Best Libero of the two-day tournament.

Janice Valies and skipper Cheryl Brunings secured the other two awards for Suriname - Best Opposite Hitter and Best Setter, respectively.

Hunsel shared the award for Best Opposite Hitter with Naike Rogatien, the only player from runners-up Martinique to capture an individual prize.

Haiti finished with the bronze medal in the four-team competition, but ended up with three individual awards as Rose Jally Salomon was the Best Server and the No. 10 also shared the Best Middle Blocker prize with teammate Dahjna Blemur.

Hosts Aruba had no players receiving individual awards but ended the tournament being able to boast that they were the only team that forced the gold medallists to play four sets.

Suriname and Martinique qualified for the second round, which will be hosted by Jamaica in July 2017.

The next edition of the Women's World Championship will be contested in Japan and this Confederation, NORCECA, will have six qualifiers plus defending champions United States in the event.
