St Lucia blank St Martin 3-0 to start Group D

GROS ISLET, St Lucia, August 12, 2017 : St Lucia conjured up a good all round effort to blank St Martin 3-0 (25-18, 25-21, 25-21) in men's Group D play of the NORCECA Zone of the FIVB World Championships Qualifiers round for teams in the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA), at the Beausejour Indoor facility.

In muscling their way to the dominating effort, St Lucia, led by Outside Hitter- Joseph Clercent scored 19 points, with Middle Blocker- Tevin St Jean, tallying 18. St Martin's best scorer was Opposite Hitter- Rotilio Richardson with 9 points, as no one reached the double figure mark. St Lucia was also efficient in Attacks, winning 41-19; Blocks 7-4 and Service Aces 6-3. St Martin though committed 21 errors as against St Lucia's 33.

In the non- scoring brackets, St Lucia was better at receptions, 29-25 and sets 45-18. St Lucia's captain- Servin Mongroo, in assessing his team's performance in the opening match related, "It was not a hard match for us... We started off a little slowly, especially with our passing ... It was our first game so it was just the breaking of the ice".

"We had some good power serves and had various options in our attacks... With the first match out of the way, one can expect a better St Lucia team as we would be more relaxed", Mongo said.

Meanwhile, both the St Martin's head coach- Thierry Stephen and captain – Paul Qu Ellery are undaunted with the defeat.

According to Qu Ellery, "We lost and we have to bounce back from that lost ... We can't stay on the lost we just have to do better in the next two games".

In his analysis, Stephen concurred, "We did not play our best ...We have better Volleyball in us to play".

The head coach reflecting on the outcome said, "We came in lacking a bit of mental preparedness because we were expecting a higher level from St Lucia".

Stephen said that they were deficient on the blocks and were not finishing the attacks when created.

Match two features St Maarten versus Anguilla.

St Maarten clinical in straight sets against Anguilla

GROS ISLET, St Lucia, August 12, 2017 : St Maarten registered an uncomplicated downing of Anguilla 3-0 (25-17, 25-17, 25-22) match two of the men's Group D of the NORCECA Zone of the FIVB World Championships Qualifiers round for teams in the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA), at the Beausejour Indoor Facility.

St Maarten dictated the match from the first serve, to thwart whatever their opponents threw at them.

Double figures contributions from Outside Hitter- Leonardo Jeffers with 11 points and 10 from Shaquille Rombley, helped St Maarten's cause. Outside Hitter-Sherwin Richardson had 7 points, to be the lead scorer for Anguilla.

St Maarten bettered Anguilla in Attacks, winning that category 34-19, but Anguilla got the edge in Blocks, registering 7 to St Maarten's 6.

Coach, Dimitri Beauperthy of St Maarten, weighing in on his team's victory noted that the result, was what he expected.

"We played well, but had some mental lapses ... We were good at the nets; we were good at blocking and our services were good... I really don't have any complains about the way the team performed", Beauperthy analysed.

Beauperthy's opposite number- Justus Connor, pointed out that his players fell in the area of keeping their mental side of their play sustained.

"Whenever we tried to find the rhythm, an error is made which affected our momentum and took us out of the game" Connor lamented.

Connor said being focussed for a longer period of time is critical if they are to stay in contention for a shot at the gold medal on Sunday.

Match three features a duel between St Martin and St Maarten.

St Maarten outduel St Martin in humdinger

GROS ISLET, St Lucia, August 12, 2017 : Neither gave any favours nor asked for any, but St Maarten outlasted St Martin 3-1 (25-18, 25-19, 23-25, 30-28) of the men's Group D of the NORCECA Zone of the FIVB World Championships Qualifiers round for teams in the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA), at the Beausejour Indoor Facility.

St Maarten controlled the sets one and two, but St Martin showing some fight, rebounded to win set three, but St Maarten prevailed in set four, which could have gone either way. Double figures contributors to St Maarten's scoring were Reigmar Valies – 17 points ; Leonardo Jeffers - 16 points and Shaquille Rombley- 12 points. On the scoring list for St Martin, there were only single digits, with the best being Yann Hodge and Rotilio Richardson, who both had 9 points each.

St Maarten outdid St Maarten in all departments, winning Attacks 48-42, Blocks 9-5 and Aces 4-3. St Maarten registered 40 errors, while St Martin conceded 42.

Both teams though shared the spoils on Receptions as they were level on 47 apiece.

A bubbly, St Maarten's captain Leonardo Jeffers in summing the match intimated, "We had a point to prove because we met them in the final last year and beat them as it is a constantly rivalry between the two sides".

Optimistic in his outlook, Jeffers thought by pinning down their second win, they had put themselves in a good position to play in the final.

Similarly overjoyed with the win was Head Coach – Dimitri Beuperthy who commented, "We played well in the first two sets, but had a huge mental lapse in the third but came back in the fourth, but it was a good mental challenge for the boys as St Martin pushed us, but we answered".

Beuperthy added, "We came here with two goals, the first is to get to the final and the second is to win and we were half way there".

St Martin's Assistant Coach- Ashille Brooks thought his players became complacent whenever the momentum was with them.

"We were too comfortable whenever we took the lead, hence we did not capitalise on the opportunities when we were in front", Brooks contended.

Brooks confessed that with the two losses, they would be hard pressed to make it to the final. St Lucia and Anguilla engage each other in match four of the group.

St Lucia survive scare to power past Anguilla

GROS ISLET, St Lucia, August 12, 2017: St Lucia had to overcome a spirited Anguilla outfit to emerge 3-1 (21-25, 25-18, 25-18, 25-20) of the men's Group D of the NORCECA Zone of the FIVB World Championships Qualifiers round for teams in the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA), at the Beausejour Indoor Facility.

Anguilla, coming off a 3-0 defeat by St Maarten silenced St Lucia in the first set, much to the consternation of the partisan home crowd. More uneasiness came as Anguilla began steering the course deep into the second set, before running out of steam.

St Lucia's ace player – Joseph Clercent led his team's resurgence, as he ended after the four sets with 31 points. The Outside Hitter was exerted some brute force at times, turning on the Lucia pressure on Anguilla. Another Outside Hitter- Anfernee Ferdinand put together 13 points as well for St Lucia.

Anguilla's best scorers were Outside Hitter- Sherwin Richardson and Setter- Ian Connor, who recorded 16 and 11 points, respectively.

In the areas of Attacks and Blocks, St Lucia outnumbered Anguilla. St Lucia won Attacks 47-31 and Blocks at 11-10.

The two were equal in Aces at 3, but Anguilla was more proficient in errors, conceding 35, while St Lucia committed 37.

Despite winning the match, St Lucia's Head Coach – Terry Verdant expressed dissatisfaction with his team's play.

“We were bad on blocking ... We have not played as yet the system that we have practised”, Verdant remarked.

Verdant admitted that at times during the match he felt some concerns, but relief grew as the match wore on.

Encouraged by his team's improvements from their first outing, Anguilla's Head Coach – Justus Connor analysed, “We played the way we know that way we can play , but just a few unforced errors at critical points of the match, again it was the mental side of our game that let us down”.

Connor is hopeful that his charges will continue to get better in their remaining matches.

The two winless teams, Anguilla and St Martin, play in match five.
