Match 2: SXM vs. SMA

St. Martin vs. St. Maarten: Civil war

“No team gave a quarter nor was any taken”, as the much anticipated civil war, resulted in a 16-25; 26-24; 25-20; 25-19 victory for French St. Martin. With both teams very nervous in set one, it produced many unforced errors, which filtered through the entire game. Realizing the importance of the game, Rotilio Richardson took the team on his shoulders and scored twenty one points. Captain Paul Quellery was the team’s second highest scorer but the loudest cheer leader.

St. Maarten fought valiantly, but it could not stem the course of the tide. Captain Jeffers led the way by scoring eleven points and tried rallying his men in moral and with good passes. He was ably assisted by Riegmar Valies (18 points), who provided much needed fire power but it was insufficient. Despite the loss one could see an improvement in team passing and communication in the young team.

Coach Thierry Stephens was not worried about his team’s first set lost. He made a few changes which produced the desired result. Coach Thierry was highly complementary of his opposition, noting they have a young team and young coaching staff. He encouraged them to remain focused and execute their game plan. Team Captain Paul Quellery, said he was aware of the Coach’s game plan and worked with it. He was not worried about errors made, as he is of the view, unity makes for a more powerful team. Like his coach, Captain Quellery spoke highly of the opposition and encouraged them to continue working hard.

St. Maarten’s coach Demitri Beauperthuy was full of praise for his young charges. He felt they played well but fatigue played a role in the unforced errors committed. He was fully confident they will be ready for tomorrow’s game. Captain Jeffers knew the game was going to be tough but indicated the initial goal was to win at least two sets. He further lamented all errors will be corrected in time for Sunday’s match.

Match 3: SXM vs. IVB

St. Martin rolls over IVB in three sets

Energized from their victory over perennial arch rivals, French St. Martin steam rolled opponents British Virgin Islands (IVB) with a score of 25 - 19 ; 25 - 16 ; 25 - 13 . The “Phoenix” functioned like a smooth unit, with unstoppable hitting from, Julien Sponsper, Paul Quellery and Ashille Brooks. The former torched IVB with twelve points, while Captain Quellery contributed eight.

Team IVB was unable to gain any traction against French St. Martin. However they gave a good account of themselves and fought like there is no tomorrow. There was improvement in every department with more consistent passing, better sets and more effective hits. Unfortunately the injury bug limited the chances of improving. Despite this, Canice Marquis was the team leading scorer, producing five points.

Coach Thierry Stephens worked a new game plan in which he utilized reserved players and rest the main squad. Both Coach and Captain Paul Quellery were highly complementary of their opposition and implored them to continue working. They were happy about being efficient, now they will prepare for the finals.

Coach Stephan Payne of the British Virgin Islands indicated he was happy to see the improvement in his players over the course of the two matches. He feels with more practice they will do better. He was also complementary of his setter as he was thrust in the role on short notice.
