Match 1

St. Martin easily defeats debutants Saba

Host St. Martin made their intentions clear, by quickly defeated Saba with a score of 25-10; 25 -6; 25-14. The "Phoenix" scorched the court with pin point serves and experience. Captain Valerie Damaseau, Audrey Gil and Georgina Zenon led the way with points scored. This offense was complemented with a stingy defense, though it lapsed at times. With a victory in hand, the "Phoenix" will be confident in facing their next opponent.

Saba worked really hard to keep the scores close but that attempt was quickly thwarted by their opponents. However there were sparks of brilliance that shows Saba will be a force to reckon with in the future. This was evidenced by their improvement in set three. Unfortunately, in today's game their inexperience and composure betrayed them. The leading scorers for team Saba was Angelica Movida.

Captain Valerie Damaseau and Coach Franck Legras complimented Saba for their participation in this tournament. Both were of the view St. Martin did not know what to expect from their opponents and at times found it difficult to respond to them. However the team used the serve and maintain any momentum they garnered to propel them to victory.

Saba's Captain, Jarmila Berkel and Coach Dereck Spence felt the experienced gained from this tournament will be invaluable. It is evident the team needs more regional games and build experience as a unit. However both were confident this is a step in the right direction and improvements will result.

Match 2: St. Kitts and Nevis versus St. Eustatius

St. Kitts and Nevis weathers initial storm to defeat St. Eustatius

The ladies from “Sugar City” sent a gentle reminder to their opponent and to the other teams as they defeated St. Eustatius with a score of 25-20 ; 25- 18 ; 25 -8. St. Kitts and Nevis endured staunch resistance throughout the game but righted the ship through good team efforts. The leading scorers for St. Kitts and Nevis were outside hitter, Shanicia Dyer and middle hitter Andrea Liburd.

“Statia’s” tenacity was on display in every facet of the game, as they fought tooth and nail to win the games. ST. Eustatius was led by the impressive efforts of Sjahrisia Hook who led in service points and spikes. Despite being the crowd favourites, it was insufficient to dilute the efforts of the “Sugar girls” and deny them victory.

Captain Antoinette Henry and Coach Steadroy Collins of team St. Kitts and Nevis were of the view the team got off to a slow start but improved as the game progressed. Both indicated the team needed better communication and relax on the court. They were also impressed with the quality of play from new team and the efforts of their opponents.

Coach Elvin Henriquez and Captain Amarikinia Robins of St. Eustatius felt their team started out slowly and committed too many unforced errors. This was further compounded by physical and mental fatigue which led the decline in their game. However they will reassess themselves and be prepared for the next game.

Match 3: St. Eustatius vs Saba

St. Eustatius easily defeats Saba 3:0

St. Eustatius wasted no time as they defeated Saba with a score of 25- 10; 25- 15; 25 - 14. St. Eustatius dominated from the first whistle through the efforts of Rasheeda Bourne and Carla Duinkerck, each contributing eight points.

Saba seemed to have transformed as they played more relaxed and better communication in comparison to game one. Consequently, they passed better and scored more points. Joy-Ann Robinson was the main point contributor. Unfortunately, her efforts could not turn the game in Saba's favour.

Coach Elvin Henriquez and Captain Amarikinia of ST. Eustatius were both elated at the victory. They noted a reduction in errors and used a modified line up to rest some player. They both felt it was imperative to take the maximum point total.

Saba's Captain, Jarmila Berkel and Coach Dereck Spence indicated there was an improvement in their performance. The ladies played relaxed and grew in confidence, however it was recognized more tactical improvements will have to be made to make Saba better.

Match 4: St. Kitts and Nevis vs St. Martin

St. Martin burns St. Kitts and Nevis in an epic encounter

The St. Martin Phoenix torched the Sugar city ladies of St. Kitts with a score line of 25-18; 20-25; 25- 19; 25- 19. Host St. Martin attacked from all areas of the court putting their counter parts on the defensive. Middle blocker Jacqueline Hodge tore a gaping hole in the Sugar ladies defense. Her efforts resulted in some twenty two points and fourteen blocks

Team St. Kitts and Nevis seemed to have corrected their poor start in the second set. However, that momentum was quickly snuffed out. Shanicia Dyer tried hard to rally her team unfortunately it was in sufficient to retard the heat of the “Phoenix”. She scored a total of eleven points and eleven blocks.

While both teams acknowledged deep respect for each other, Captain Damaseau and Coach Legras of St. Martin the team executed well as they played complete volleyball. It was important to secure maximum points as the next opponents are not afraid of playing all out.

Captain Henry of St. Kitts and Nevis felt her team needed to communicate more and relax and have fun while playing. Coach Collins concurred with her but indicated today’s game was about finding the best rotation for Sunday’s finals.

Match 5: St. Kitts and Nevis vs. Saba

St. Kitts and Nevis annihilates Saba to seal place in finals

St. Kitts and Nevis recovered from last night's defeat as they trounced Saba with a 25- 5 ; 25- 5 ; 25- 3, score line. Team St. Kitts and Nevis set aside their fatigue and played relaxed volleyball. Leading the way were Genelle Howell, and Shanicia Dyer, as they blistered the ball from all sides of the court. The pillaging netted them thirteen and ten points respectively. They were ably supported by a frugal defense and good communication.

Despite tasting the bitter fruit of their opponents, Saba tried withstanding the test. Unfortunately, the team moral ebbed and it affected the entire game. Despite this, moments of brilliance was seen. Joy-Ann Robinson showed lots of guts in set two as she threw herself in all directions to prevent the ball from falling.

Coach Collins and Captain Henry from St. Kitts indicated the team served and communicated well. According to Coach Collins, this match allowed us to find the rotation we were looking for. Saba's Coach Spence and Captain Berkel felt the team under performed as they could have been tired but lack of experience precipitated the results. However, both were optimistic improvements will come through more exposure.

Match 6: St. Martin vs. St. Eustatius

St. Martin clinches spot in the finals after a sound testing from St. Eustatius

St. Martin with stood the relentless onslaught of St. Eustatius to produce a spectacular victory, with a score of 25- 22; 25-18; 25- 20. The unstoppable force of Jacqueline Hodge ruled the middle with an iron fist. She scored fifteen points and produced eleven blocks. The Phoenix well aware of what was at stake, remained well composed with sound passing and brilliant setting.

St. Eustatius did not shy away from the offense of their opponents but instead countered with a strong defensive shield. Consequently they were able to keep the scores very close. However, as the game progressed fatigue showed its head but the ladies fought on. The main scorers for the team were Hook and Rivers with five points each.

Both teams displayed a tremendous amount of respect for each other. Coach Legras and Captain Damaseau of St. Martin were succinct in stating the team played a solid game and the opposition produced a stellar performance. Coach Henriquez and Captain Lopes Robins were satisfied with their efforts and have seen the evolution of the team. However the captain indicated due to fatigue the team fell out of system but it was a great learning experience.
