Match 7: St. Eustatius vs. Saba

St. Eustatius earns a hard fought bronze medal

25 -14; 25 -11; 25 - 6; was the score as St. Eustatius soundly defeated Saba to secure their first medal in a regional tournament. St. Eustatius was the more composed, as they attacked and defended in a seamless fashion. Sjahrisia Hook peppered Saba with a variety of spikes and produced nineteen points.

Though team Saba was out powered, her players gave a good account of themselves. They clawed and scratched their way to remain in the game. Eventually, they succumbed to the greater force. Despite this, Joy-Ann Robinson stood contributed the most points to her team.

St. Eustatius's Captain Robins and Coach Henriquez were elated to have won the bronze medal but are of the opinion more improvement is needed to advance in these tournaments. Both complemented the play of their opponents.

Coach Spence and Captain Berkel of Saba noted the change in demeanor as the game progressed. They indicated the team needs to grow into the game and adapt faster to circumstances and remain confident in their skills.

Match 8: St. Kitts and Nevis vs. St. Martin

St. Martin stuns St. Kitts and Nevis in a three set stunner

With a gold medal and bragging rights at stake, St. Martin brushed aside St. Kitts and Nevis in a three set thriller, with a score of 25- 22; 25-23; 26- 24. Jacqueline Hodge led the way with thunderous hits through the middle and the outside, which perforated the defense. Her exploits produced a total of nineteen points and eleven blocks. She was well supported by team captain Valerie Damaseau.

St. Kitts and Nevis displayed a wealth of character despite the loss. Captain Henry marshaled her troupes but it was insufficient to quench St. Martin. Despite the loud partisan crowd and unforced errors, Shanicia Dyer led the attack for St. Kitts and Nevis with eight points.

Winning Coach Legras and Captain Damaseau were elated at winning the gold medal and advancing to the second round. They gave high praise to their opponents and note the home support. Both parties stated individuals win individual awards but a team wins a championship.
