

Pan Am Cup

Girls Youth U 18

March 28-April 3, 2017 • La Habana, Cuba

Newsletter

Manuela Ibarguen led the Colombian sensational comeback with 22 points, followed by Ana Olaya and Valerin Carabalí with 16 and 12, respectively, in the victory.

Dominican Madeline Guillen topped all the players in the match with 28 points while teammates Yaneiry Rodriguez and Yanlis Feliz added 14 and 12, respectively, in the losing effort.

Earlier on Saturday, Uruguay claimed a seesaw 3-2 (25-22, 16-25, 25-17, 21-25, 15-12) victory over Guatemala for the ninth position and Puerto Rico swept Costa Rica 3-0 (25-9, 25-20, 25-21) in the contest for the seventh place.

Cuba and Colombia to battle for title at Pan Am Cup

HAVANA, Cuba, April 2, 2017 – Hosts Cuba will play Colombia for the gold medal at the U18 Girls' Pan American Cup following five-set semifinal victories over Argentina and Dominican Republic, respectively, at Ciudad Deportiva Coliseum of Havana on Saturday.

Cuba edged Argentina in a roller-coaster contest 3-2 (20-25, 27-25, 18-25, 25-16, 15-11) while Colombia came all the way back from losing the first two sets to stun the Dominican Republic 3-2 (10-25, 22-25, 25-16, 28-26, 15-11).

Sunday's action features three matches starting with the contest between Mexico and Chile for the fifth position followed by the bronze and gold medal battles.

Elizabeth Vicet and Ailama Cesé registered 26 and 24 points, respectively, as solid cornerstones of the Cuban attack while Ivy Vila and Yamisleidys Viltres contributed 12 and 11 in the victory. Argentina's top scorers were Sofia Meinardi (17) and Martina Delucchi (16).

