Coaches expectations high at Junior CAZOVA Championships

MARTINIQUE, December 7, 2019: The coaches of the six men teams competing at the 2019 Caribbean Zonal Volleyball Association (CAZOVA) Junior Men (Under-21) have expressed high expectations from their respective teams ahead of the tournament at the La Ville de Reviere Salee Palais Des Sport from Sunday, December 8 until Friday, December 13.

In addition, to host Martinique, the participating teams contesting the competition which will determine one team per gender to the Junior NORCECA Continental Championship are Trinidad and Tobago, Curacao, Guadeloupe, US Virgin Islands, and Barbados.

Men:

Guadeloupe (Gayetann Broussillon): We began our preparations last May with the Under-17 players with a tournament in France and we then returned home and incorporated the older players to the team.

"It worked well for us as they got to combine well ahead of our final set of warm-up matches and now we are here targeting firstly to get to the semifinals.

"Once we get to that point, anything is possible of happening at this age-group."

Barbados (John Patrick): " Our final phase of preparation was pretty decent. We believe the team should do well once they play to their top ability.

But in saying that we still have no real information on the other teams so we will need to take a very positive approach into our matches from the first serve."

USVI (Isaac Raphael): "Our boys are a very athletic group, but they need to learn the developmental aspects of the game.

"They are a very capable group of players and it's now to see how much they can put into a real game time situation what they have learned during the practice sessions."

Martinique (Gael Melinard): "For this competition, we had bad preparations as it was very difficult because of various reasons. Despite that, I still believe with this group of young players including three from the last competition we can create some good things.

"Our aim is still to be champions so we will come out to play as best as we can."

Curacao (Henrich Daal): " Preparations were very good for us even though it was nine months. Our expectations are very high even though we are starting against the defending champions because we are up for the challenge and have to beat the best if we want to win overall."

Trinidad and Tobago (Peer Nasseir): "Our readiness for this tournament started since December 2018 so we had a very good cycle of training."

"We had a few stoppages in between due to school examinations, but the boys were able to get in some valuable matches during the Super League and Schools competition."
