Welcome to Martinique

On the behalf of Presidents' Dr. Ary Gracia (FIVB), Snr Cristobal Marte Hoffiz (NORCECA), Mr. Mushtaque Mohammed (CAZOVA) and Mr. Ronald Regna (Martinique Volleyball League) and myself, I welcome all the delegations to the CAZOVA Junior Championship (U21 & U20) in the beautiful island of Martinique.

We are very pleased with your efforts to participate in this Championship which forms part of the qualification process for World Championship U21 & U20.

Its our hope that you give of your best and represent your National Federation with dignity. We expect strong battles on the court but remember off the court, we are still one family.

Au nom des Présidents Dr Ary Gracia de la FIVB, M. Cristobal Marte Hoffiz de la Norceca, M. Mushtaque Mohammed de la CAZOVA et M. Ronald Regna de la Ligue de Martinique de Volleyball, et en mon nom propre, je souhaite la bienvenue à toutes les délégations ici présentes sur cette belle ile qu'est la Martinique, pour participer au Championnat Junior de la Caraïbe (CAZOVA) des moins de 21 ans et des moins de 20 ans.

Nous apprécions tous les efforts que vous avez fournis pour prendre part à ce championnat, une étape qualificative au Championnat du Monde des moins de 21 ans et des moins de 20 ans.

Nous sommes persuadés que vous représenterez vos fédérations respectives avec honneur et dignité. Nous nous attendons à une compétition de haut niveau, rude et acharnée, mais rappelez-vous, qu'en dehors du terrain de jeu, nous sommes et demeurons une grande famille.

Coaches expectations high at Junior CAZOVA Championships

MARTINIQUE, December 7, 2019: The coaches of the six women teams competing at the 2019 Caribbean Zonal Volleyball Association (CAZOVA) Women (Under-20) have expressed high expectations from their respective teams ahead of the tournament at the La Ville de Reviere Salee Palais Des Sport from Sunday, December 8 until Friday, December 13.

In addition, to host Martinique, the participating teams contesting the competition which will determine one team per gender to the Junior NORCECA Continental Championship are Trinidad and Tobago, Curacao, Guadeloupe, US Virgin Islands, and Barbados.

Guadeloupe (Dixie Estelle): "We started to prepare in early July with the younger players at the Jamaica CAZOVA Youth Championship so to give them some exposure.

"Since then we have trained a lot with the older players to get the team more organized and I think we did a great job and we are ready for the matches in the competition and with the team we have I think we can reach the final."

Barbados (Patrick Oxley): "I expect our girls to do well. We have some new girls who never played at this CAZOVA level so it will be a new experience for them at a competition of this magnitude, and with the help of more senior players, we are sure they can cope well.

"They have the capability as a group and team to get to the final and bring home the gold medal if they play to their top potential."

USVI (Isaac Raphael): " The girls are not that all very experienced, but they have trained very hard and hope to showcase all that they have gained from their training sessions as they are ready to deliver.

"We have some of the players who competed at the CAZOVA Youth competition in Jamaica earlier this year and we are continuing to try and develop a solid base of players with an eye on the future."

Martinique (Tania Villeronce): "Our expectations as just like in 2013 when we last hosted this competition, as we expect to win again.

"Even though it's a new generation of players and the level is not the same, they still have the same kind of motivation and confidence to do great things and we are confident about our chances."

Curacao (Gilbert Paulina): "We had a good full year of getting ready for this competition. The girls are all geared up to play and we are ready as we expect to win the gold medal."

Trinidad and Tobago (Nicholson Drakes): "Our preparations for this tournament was focused on being able to have more control of various disciplines in the match.

"Our team has the core of players who competed in the Youth Championship in Jamaica earlier this year and with the experienced, they got there and training since then I have great expectations of them."
