Barbados sweeps T&T in Junior Women opener

RIVIERE-SALEE, Martinique, December 8, 2019: Barbados served off their quest for a maiden title in Caribbean Zonal Volleyball Association (CAZOVA) Junior (Under-20) Women Championship with a straight-sets win over long-time rivals and six-time winners, Trinidad and Tobago.

Competing in their three-team Pool B curtain-raiser, Barbados, runners-up in 1997, 1999 and 2015, the last time the competition was held overcame Trinidad and Tobago 25-21, 25-18, 25-17 La Ville Riviere-Salee Palais Des Sport.

However, the outcome of the contest could have been very different had Trinidad and Tobago, taken their chances at 21-20 ahead in the opening set after clawing their way back from a 0-5 start to level the match at 14-14, only for Outside Hitter Jada Crawford to suffer a twisted left ankle with the former winners behind 15-16.

The second set also had the spectators on the edge of their seats with Barbados storming into an 8-0 advantage only for Trinidad and Tobago to win the next eight points to level the clash at 8-all. The Barbadians then went on another run and won six of the next eight points for a 14-10 cushion, before Trinidad and Tobago pulled within a point at 18-17.

But just like in the opening set, Barbados showed a better level of calmness and committed fewer errors which called upon to do so for a 2-0 advantage in the best-of-five sets match.

The third set was close up until 4-3 after which the Barbadians applied full control before some solid defence and potent spiking to clinch a critical win towards securing automatic semifinal qualification from the pool.

Commenting on the win, Barbados coach Patrick Oxley said his team preparations for the competition played a key role in their win.

“We concentrated on a lot of game time situations playing as a team and focusing on transitioning defence to offense and vice-versa and today we showcased that.

Team captain, Teneille Chapman-Goodluck was first quick to admit her team was very nervous at the start.

“We had a few words from their coach was able to get them settled and work on their small targets which eventually led to the win.

Nicholson Drakes, coach of the Trinidad and Tobago team said his team was able to see how far they have come along in terms of their development and transition from the Youth Championship in Jamaica earlier in the year, and a lot of work still has to be done.

T&T captain, Kiune Fletcher who had a very low-key match by her standards said her team was very confused to start with.

“It was our first match at this level and while we did manage to get some aspects of the game right, we were guilty of making too many unforced errors which I believed was key to their win.

“We also need to work on our service reception and attacks going forward.”

Trinidad and Tobago, champions in 1997, 2001, 2003, 2005, 2007 and 2011/2012 will have little time to reflect on the loss as they come up against Guadeloupe from 2 pm on Monday, December 9 while Barbados, beaten on home soil by Haiti in the 2015 final plays Guadeloupe on Tuesday from 6 pm to end pool play, at the end of which the top team in the pool will advance to the semifinals and second and third to the cross-over quarterfinals.

In Pool A, host Martinique faces Curacao on Sunday night, before playing US Virgin Islands from 8 pm on Monday, while USVI battles Curacao on Tuesday, the final round-robin match, from 4 pm.

Martinique attacks cool off Curacao girls in straight sets

RIVIERE-SALEE, Martinique, December, 8, 2019: The trio of captain Sarai Bandinos, Oriane Fage and Nancy Louis-Marie all had solid performances as host and former champions Martinique defeated Curacao 3-0 (26-24, 25-11, 25-20) in their Pool A opener of the 2019 Caribbean Zonal Volleyball Association (CAZOVA) Junior (Under-20) Women Championship at La Ville Riviere-Salee Palais Des Sport.

Despite the win, Martinique who are hoping to repeat their 2013 triumph on home soil when they beat six-time winners Trinidad and Tobago, the outcome for Curacao could have been so much different had they taken one of the two first sets points on offer when ahead 24-22.

But it was not the case as the powerful spikes of Bandinos, Fage, and Louis-Marie when called upon lifted Martinique to the unlikely first set win.

And with the backing of a vociferous home crowd, Bandinos and her team-mates stormed their way to an easy second set win before holding off a late fight-back from the visitors to clinch victory in three straight sets.

Following the match, Curacao captain, Githangely St Hillaire was quick to admit that her team-mates were not used to playing at this level of competition and it affected their overall game.

“We are not used to playing in type of atmosphere and pressure from the crowd, but we did manage to get a chance to put some pressure on Martinique in the first set and we did not manage to do it.

“Winning the first set would have given us a good boost of confidence, but instead it went down because we wasted the chance, so now we have to prepare for the next match.”

Coach Gilbert Paulina added, “The girls were very nervous, and it was expected because they are a young team, so we just have to learn from the mistakes and prepare for the next match.

Bandinos said, “We knew we had pressure on us to get a win playing at home, but we have been preparing for it for a long time and it was a really good performance from us.”

Coach Tania Villeronce said that her team knows that winning a second title at home will be a great achievement.

“We did it once in front of our supporters and would like to do it again. But it won’t be easy so we have to work hard in each game and with the support of the spectators we can do it.”

Martinique will have a chance at a second win on Monday when they face US Virgin Islands from 8 pm, while Guadeloupe battles six-time winners Trinidad and Tobago from 2 pm in Pool B.
