Curacao survives Guadeloupe women fightback for fifth spot

RIVIERE-SALEE, Martinique, December 12, 2019: Team captain Githangely St Hillaire led all scorers with 17 points as Curacao held off a fightback from Guadeloupe for a 3-2 (25-20, 27-25, 15-25, 16-25, 16-14) in their fifth spot playoff at the 2019 Caribbean Zonal Volleyball Association (CAZOVA) Junior (Under-20) Women Championship.

St Hillaire's tally included 12 kills and five service aces while Liz Rossen added nine and Gloveienelly Phelipa, seven in the one hour, and 58 minutes clash at the La Ville de Riviere-Salee Palais Des Sport.

Guadeloupe, who may feel hard done by some questionable calls by the officials in the final stages of the match, got 15 points from Teha Meslier De Roca, while Fanie Lewis got 13, and Julie Gustave Dit Durflo and Tengy Balzamont, 11 points each.

Overall, it was an evenly contested match with both teams guilty of committing a high volume of errors, Guadeloupe 55 to Curacao's 48.

Despite the loss, Guadeloupe managed to outscore the winners 35-28 on spikes, and 18-8 on service aces, while both teams had eight blocks each.

In the main draw semifinals on Thursday night, host Martinique, champions in 2013 faces three-time runners-up Barbados from 6 pm, while six-time winners Trinidad and Tobago tackle Curacao in the first semifinal from 2 pm, ahead of the bronze medal match and finals on Friday.

T&T battles past USVI for junior women finals place

RIVIERE-SALEE, Martinique, December 12, 2019: Six-time champions Trinidad and Tobago advanced to their record ninth final of the Caribbean Zonal Volleyball Association (CAZOVA) Junior (Under-20) Women Championship after an entertaining 3-2 win against US Virgin Islands at the La Ville de Riviere-Salee Palais Des Sport

Powered by captain Kiune Fletcher's tournament-high 37 points, T&T won 25-23, 26-28, 26-24, 21-25, 15-13 in two hours and five minutes to book a spot in the championship against either 2013 winners or three-time runners-up Barbados who meet in the second semifinal and last match of the day.

Fletcher's tally included 30 spikes, four blocks and three aces while Samara Peters-Charles, Desiree Donald and Jordana Simon added valuable scores of 13, 12 and six points respectively. Both Peters-Charles and Donald fired in six aces each for T&T previous winners 1997, 2001, 2003, 2005, 2007 and 2011/2012.

For the US Virgin Islands who ended fourth the last time out in Barbados in 2015 captain, Alek-Wek Raphael had a stellar display with 34 points, boosted by 26 kills and eight aces.

T'yanna Lake was the next best scorer for US Virgin Islands with eight points, while Elayna Joseph and Radiance Peets got four points each in the loss.

Fletcher commenting on her team's victory said it was a very close match and praised the support and team energy as key factors in getting them to the win.

"We really tried to push hard, but we had so many errors which set us back but was still able to get the win, and I am proud of my team for that.

Team coach Nicholson Drakes said he was very happy with the effort and proud of the performance of the team.

"I know the coach of USVI (Isaac Raphael) very well as he coaches in the USA and normally prepares his teams tactically well, but we were able to adjust on most occasions."

USVI captain, Raphael said it was a great match in which someone had to come out on top or lose. She added, "In a semifinal, you can't ask for a closer match than that as most sets were separated by the smallest of margins."

Coach Isaac Raphael was quick to point out the efforts of both captains who led their respective teams tremendously."

Barbados outlasts Martinique for women's finals spot

RIVIERE-SALEE, Martinique, December 12, 2019: Team captain Tenielle Chapman-Goodluck came to her team's rescue once again in leading Barbados past host Martinique 3-0 (25-17, 25-20, 25-21) to reach a second straight final in the Caribbean Zonal Volleyball Association (CAZOVA) Junior (Under-20) Women Championship.

The Barbadians, beaten finalist in 1997, 1999 and 2015, the last time the competition was held, will now come up against six-time winners Trinidad and Tobago whom they beat 25-21, 25-18, 25-17 at the same La Ville Riviere-Salee Palais Des Sport on Sunday in the opening match in the final on Friday from 6 pm.

Martinique, who was seeking a repeat of their 2013 on home soil will have a chance at redemption when they face US Virgin Islands in the third-placed playoff.

Reflecting on their win, Barbados coach Patrick Oxley and captain Tenielle Chapman-Goodluck. Chapman-Goodluck said, "We started very slow due to the delay in the starting off the match which affected how we got into the flow of the match.

Looking ahead to the final, Chapman-Goodluck said her team is not going to believe that they will beat Trinidad and Tobago despite beating them already in the competition.

"So, we have to continue to play hard and with the same high level of energy."

Coach Oxley added, "Our mindset was that it would be a tough match and everything that we put into practice.

"I told the girls, once we play just as we do in practice and stick to the little small girls we will get through."

"We knew to play against the host would have been a pressure situation and I explain to them that Martinique would be under more pressure playing in front of their home crowd.

With regards to the final Oxley said he will be taking it personally as in 2013 when he was the head coach of the Youth Championship team we beat Trinidad and Tobago in the preliminary round, and then in the final, they created a massive atmosphere and played well and beat us."
