Bermuda outlasts Antigua in straight sets

ST. JOHN'S, Antigua and Barbuda, August 23, 2019: Bermuda gave a polished performance to beat Antigua and Barbuda 3-0 ( 25- 17, 25-17, 25-23), to register their first win in the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) Under-20 Female Volleyball Tournament, here at the YMCA Sporting Complex.

Both teams went into match four of the tournament, with a different status, with Antigua and Barbuda having a win over Saba, whilst Bermuda had lost to St Lucia, in their opening fixture.

But it was the Bermudans that made the fewer errors – 30, while Antigua and Barbuda committed 49, which proved crucial in the match's outcome.

Bermuda also bettered Antigua and Barbuda in Serves 11-6, but was outdone in Blocks 4-1.

Outside Hitter- Daniella Stegmann was Bermuda's topscorer with 7 points, with Antigua and Barbuda's Middle Blocker- Jah- Lieshia Knowles, also scoring 7 points.

A bubbly Gary LeBlanc, Bermuda's Head Coach maintained that his team stuck to the fundamentals.

"We assessed how we played against St Lucia and we focussed on those and the result was a win", LeBlanc assessed.

Admitting that the match versus Antigua and Barbuda was "not perfect", LeBlanc projected a fine-tuning of some aspects of the game, in preparation for the next meeting versus Saba.

Meanwhile, Bermuda's Captain- Ashley Horseman expressed: "It feels really good winning this match".

Thumbing the unity and spirit within the team, Horseman pointed out: "We channelled our energy and we kept it up the whole match ... It didn't matter if we were down three points or up five points, we had the same energy and that helped us to win".

On the other hand, assessing his team's defeat, Rixon Joseph, Antigua and Barbuda's Head Coach summed up, "Today's match was a tougher match than yesterday's ... The girls just needed to play a little harder and put in some more effort into their play".

Joseph was however optimistic that the team has what it takes to rebound in their final preliminary round match against St Lucia.

And, in spite of the loss, Antigua and Barbuda's Captain – Nashea Browne was still in high in spirits.

"The game was a bit tough, we should have played better as we were not as focussed as we were in the match against Saba, but we promise to come out and do our best and keep the positivity up and keep encouraging one another", Browne related.

Next, Saba plays Bermuda in match five of the tournament.

Antigua blots St Lucia's record in five setter

ST. JOHN'S, Antigua and Barbuda, August 23, 2019: Antigua and Barbuda lost the first two sets, but rebounded to blot St Lucia's record, winning 3-2( 10-25, 20-25, 25- 23, 25- 20 , 15- 9) in the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) Under-20 Female Volleyball Tournament, here at the YMCA Sporting Complex.

St Lucia, who had straight sets wins over Bermuda and Saba, seemed on course to make it another formality after winning sets one and two.

However, Antigua and Barbuda regrouped, and buoyed by the home support, rallied to take the match beyond three sets, and eventually trumped the duel.

Topping Antigua and Barbuda's scoring was Nashea Browne, who had 14 points. Clio Phillip with 15 points, led St Lucia's scoring.

An excited Nashea Browne, Antigua and Barbuda's Captain, in reflecting on the close match recalled, "At first we started off shaky, but we got back in the game and we executed well to win the match".

Anticipating another strong challenge from Bermuda in the semi-finals, Browne wants her players to have the same mind-set, as they had against the St Lucians.

"I'm hoping for the same energy, positivity when we come up against Bermuda and also come up with a win", Browne stated.

Similarly, Head Coach of the Antigua and Barbuda team- Rixon Joseph was equally analytical of the nervy but exciting match versus St Lucia.

"In the first two sets, my team was still nervous but we had to make some changes, putting certain players in different positions to actually get a good outcome from the game", Joseph reported.

He advised, "As long as come and play Volleyball as we played against St Lucia, I know we will win surely against Bermuda".

But it was a different tone for the Coach of St Lucia – Terry Verdant.

"Tonight's game was a disappointment to me but at least we played our bad game tonight", Verdant acknowledged.

Both Verdant and team Captain- Amalia Louis exuded "confidence" of getting past Saba in the semi-finals.

St Lucia finished the preliminary round in first place, with Bermuda – second. Antigua and Barbuda was third and Saba- fourth.

St Lucia plays Saba in the first semi- final, with Bermuda facing Antigua and Barbuda in the second.
