Joining Verdant with that expression of confidence heading into the final, was team Captain – Amalia Louis.

“We are very confident that whoever we play in the final that we will win”, Louis advised.

And, despite losing their fourth match on the trot, Saba's Coach- Germaine Zimmerman referred to the continued improvements of her players throughout the tournament.

Concurring with Joseph was team Captain- Hashea Browne, who praised her team mates for staying in the match, even when they trailed.

Browne promised ahead of the final: "We are going to bring the same energy when we meet St Lucia".

Meanwhile, Bermuda's Captain- Ashley Horseman thought that the match could have gone either way.

"We played our hearts out... It was tough, as the game could have gone either way and it went in their favour", Horseman reasoned.
