JUNIOR GAMES CALI, 2021

Junior Pan Am Games a great opportunity for a new generation

CALI, Colombia, November 30, 2021. - According to the head coaches of the eight participating teams in the women's volleyball tournament, the Junior Pan Am Games are a great opportunity for a new generation of volleyball players.

Coaches gave their insights ahead of the competition that starts on Wednesday December 1, during the general technical meeting held at the official venue Evangelista Mora Coliseum.

Pablo Martín Ambrosini, head coach of Argentina: "This is a very important competition, all that are part of the Olympic cycle and that have the support of the national sports authorities; we are facing the best of the continent. We've gathered young players; many with experience in U18 and U20 world championships and that have competed in the senior team at the south American championship and we've been practicing at our development center for this tournament. We want to play well, which will help us one game at a time, our group is difficult and it's of great level. We will try and play for a medal".

Wagner Coppini, head coach of Brazil: "This is a really important category because the gap between junior and senior category is too big, now the players have an opportunity to perform internationally, and then reach the senior category. This is a great international experience, at a Pan-American highly competitive level".

Antonio Rizola, assistant coach of Colombia: "First we are really happy to be in our country. Our goal is to be in the semifinals. We need to overcome many problems because 8 of our players were playing in Europe and are arriving until today, we didn't have one single practice together; today will be the first practice with all twelve before tomorrow's match, it will be a great challenge but I believe that playing at home will motivate the team a lot. This category was one that was left out, the players could only reach as starters at a senior level and had no chance of playing internationally, now the competition gives them back the opportunity to play at a Pan-American level, it's really important for their growth".

Wagner Pacheco, head coach of Dominican Republic: "The team is doing very well, we practiced one week in Brazil, we had to practice games there and it's well prepared. Our goal is to win a medal, like all the teams here. This is a different category, a great opportunity for those players who aren't part of a senior team and to take benefit from the experience".

Luis Alberto León, head coach of Mexico: "We are really excited for this new competition, the first edition of the Games. The team is highly motivated. Our goals are to fight for a medal and to qualify for Santiago 2023".

Francisco Hervas, head coach of Peru: "We are aware that we have a tough group, Brazil and Dominican Republic are undisputable favorites but we will try to reach the semifinals, which would be a great feat for us".

I PAN-AMERICAN JUNIOR GAMES CALI, 2021

Cali, Colombia Nov-25 / Dec- 5, 2021

Juan Carlos Rodríguez, head coach of Puerto Rico: “From the group that qualified in Aguascalientes for the Games, we are bringing only two players (one setter and an outside hitter), the group studies in college. We’ve had four practices because it was difficult recruiting U23 players as most of them aren’t studying in Puerto Rico. I liked my team during the first practices, we are well in every position and we will improve as the tournament develops”.

Miquel Misidjang, head coach of Suriname: “I think it was a good decision to organize this tournament, good for the players to see how other countries are working and performing, so they can work on themselves; and also for the coaches to follow the development of other countries. My team is well prepared, we competed at the U23 Pan American Cup and we didn’t make many changes from that group; we’ve been practicing for three months and playing games for this event”.

Juegos Panamericanos Junior una gran oportunidad para la nueva generación

CALI, Colombia, 30 de noviembre de 2021. - De acuerdo a los entrenadores de los ocho equipos que toman parte del torneo de voleibol femenino, los Juegos Panamericanos Junior son una gran oportunidad para la nueva generación de jugadoras de voleibol.

Los entrenadores dieron sus primeras impresiones durante la reunión técnica general que se celebró en la cancha oficial el Coliseo Evangelista Mora, un día antes de la competencia que inicia el miércoles 1 de diciembre.

Pablo Martín Ambrosini, entrenador de Argentina: “Esta competencia es muy importante, todas las del ciclo olímpico y que tenga el apoyo de las autoridades de nuestro deporte nacional; es venir a medirnos con los mejores del continente. Hemos armado un grupo de jugadoras jóvenes, muchas con experiencia en mundiales U18 y U20, y que han estado en selección mayor compitiendo en el campeonato sudamericano y con una preparación en el centro de entrenamiento para hacer un gran torneo. Queremos jugar bien, lo que nos va a permitir ir partido a partido, estamos en un grupo difícil y el nivel es muy competitivo. Trataremos jugar el pase a la medalla”.

Wagner Coppini, entrenador de Brasil: “Pienso que la categoría es muy importante porque la brecha entre juveniles y mayores es demasiado grande, ahora tienen una oportunidad más para jugar internacionalmente, luego alcanzar la categoría de adultos. Es una experiencia internacional, de nivel panamericano de alto nivel”.

Cali, Colombia Nov-25 / Dec- 5, 2021

Antonio Rizola, entrenador asistente de Colombia: “Primero es una alegría muy grande estar en nuestro país. El objetivo es estar en las semifinales. Necesitamos superar muchos problemas porque 8 de nuestras jugadoras juegan en Europa y están llegando hoy, no hicimos ningún entrenamiento juntas; hoy será la primera práctica de las doce para jugar mañana que será un desafío grande pero creo que jugar en casa va a motivar mucho al grupo. Esta categoría era una categoría que se quedaba fuera, las jugadoras solo podían llegar de titulares al equipo mayor y no tenía oportunidad de jugar internacionalmente, ahora esta competencia regresa esa oportunidad para jugar y a un nivel panamericano, es muy importante para el crecimiento de ellas como jugadoras”.

Wagner Pacheco, entrenador de República Dominicana: “El equipo está muy bien, entrenamos una semana en Brasil, hicimos dos fogueos allá y está bien preparado. El objetivo es ganar una medalla, como todos los equipos acá. Esta es una categoría diferente, es una gran oportunidad para aquellas jugadoras que aún no juegan en mayores y aprovechar su espacio”.

Luis Alberto León, entrenador de México: “Estamos muy emocionados por iniciar esta nueva competencia, la primera edición de los Juegos. El equipo está muy motivado. Los objetivos son pelear por una medalla y clasificar a Santiago 2023”.

Francisco Hervas, entrenador de Perú: “Sabemos que tenemos un grupo muy complicado, indudablemente Brasil y Dominicana son favoritos pero queremos intentar estar en semifinales que sería un gran logro para nosotros”.

Juan Carlos Rodríguez, entrenador de Puerto Rico: “Del grupo que clasificó para los Juegos en Aguascalientes solamente vienen dos jugadoras (una colocadora y una esquina), el grupo que viene es universitario. Hemos tenido cuatro prácticas porque ha sido difícil reclutar jugadores de 23 años porque muchas estudian afuera de Puerto Rico. Me gustó el equipo durante los primeros entrenos, estamos bien en todas las posiciones e iremos mejorando durante el torneo”.

Miquel Misidjang, entrenador de Surinam: “Esta fue una buena decisión organizar este torneo, es bueno para las jugadoras para observar cómo trabajan y juegan otros países, así pueden trabajar en ellas mismas; y también para que los entrenadores vean el desarrollo de los otros países. Mi equipo está bien preparado, competimos en la Copa Panamericana U23 y no hicimos muchos cambios en el grupo; hemos estado entrenando por tres meses y con juegos de preparación para este evento”.
