BORICUAS GANAN A CHILE EN EL ÚNICO TIE-BREAK DE LA COPA

LA HABANA, Cuba, 19 de marzo 20, 2015 – En el único partido que se ha extendido a cinco set, Puerto Rico sufrió para ganar a Chile 25-21, 29-31, 25-19, 22-25 y 15-13 y finalizó con récord de 2-1 en el grupo B de la III Copa Panamericana sub-18 femenina de voleibol.

Fueron dos horas y 10 minutos de juego, que se definió por el superior ataque de las boricuas (58-45) y menos errores (45-50), los dos últimos de las sudamericanas precisamente motivaron su sentencia.

Las máximas anotadoras resultaron de Puerto Rico, las esquinas Ivania Ortiz y Paola Salas (ambas con 19), seguidas de sus compañeras Dariana Hollingsworth (13) y la capitana Joscelyn Coronel (11). Por las adversarias, Josefa Martí (17) y Amalia Carvajal (12).

El dirigente de Puerto Rico, Luis Aponte, a pesar de la victoria se lamentó de que sus muchachas estuvieran tan erráticas con seis y siete servicios fuera por cada set.

“En el segundo que perdimos 31-29 fallaron 22 veces, las rivales solo tuvieron que hacer nueve tantos, gracias a Dios salimos triunfantes con mucho trabajo pues la intensidad de mi equipo estuvo floja, hizo poco para merecer el éxito, aunque las chilenas igual fallaron bastante y al final el partido se fue de nuestro lado”.

La capitana boricua Joscelyn Coronel expresó que “siento que nos confiamos, nosotras estudiamos muy bien a las adversarias y sabíamos lo que teníamos que hacer, pero de un momento a otro no cumplimos lo orientado y se nos fueron dos set, pero el juego estuvo bueno, todas lo disfrutamos y es una oportunidad más de competir”.

Hugo Jauregui, entrenador chileno, calificó el choque de bonito entre dos equipos parejos, “pero las faltas costaron el éxito, de todas formas vinimos de atrás dos veces y le empatamos. Hace dos años, también las boricuas nos ganaron por 3-2, ahora estamos contentos, quedamos en la zona como más o menos esperábamos, un campeonato bueno hasta ahora, necesitamos más partidos como estos”.

Catalina Reyes, su capitana, explicó que “erramos en los puntos decisivos, pero luchamos y obligamos a las rivales a seguir jugando, de todas formas queremos en cuartos de finales seguir mejorando y no caer en los mismos errores”.

MÉXICO VENCIÓ A PERÚ EN OTRO CALIENTE PARTIDO

La selección mexicana derrotó Perú 25-21, 25-21, 23-25, 20-25 y 15-13 para cerrar empatadas en ganados y perdidos (1-2) en la preliminar del grupo A de la III Copa Panamericana femenina sub-18 de voleibol.

En el segundo choque de este torneo que se fue a tie-break y sobrepasó las dos horas, las centroamericanas más efectivas a la ofensiva fueron Karla Mirelis (15), Kathya García y Karina Flores (11), y Alondra Amaro (10).

Una peruana, la opuesta Katherine Regalado, resultó la máxima anotadora con 20 puntos, seguida de sus compañeras Nicole Abreu y Leslie Leyva (15) y Maricarmen Guerrero (14).

El cubano Ricardo Naranjo, entrenador de México, dijo que “después de dos derrotas comprendieron interiormente lo que no estaban haciendo como normalmente en su país y en los entrenamientos en una concentración, creo que retomaron el camino sobre todo en actitud y en ganas, a veces podemos tener físico, táctica y técnica y no el corazón, pero hoy demostraron que tienen el más grande del mundo”.

La capitana Flores analizó que “fue un juego con muchas sorpresas, hubo una combinación de errores y aciertos, pero superamos nuestra garra y las nuevas, más confiadas, ya se sienten en la cancha y nos estamos acoplando mejor, estoy contenta, ya tenemos otra posibilidad de avanzar a un lugar más destacado”.

El español Juan Diego García, DT de las peruanas, señaló que “caímos en errores, miramos demasiado al rival y debimos hacerlo hacia nosotros, cuando esto se cumplió remontamos el partido y hasta pudimos ganarlo, por eso las felicito”.

“Creo que estuvimos un poco condicionados al saque de México, que por momentos lo hizo bien, nosotros trabajamos la pelota alta para minimizar las opciones del contrario, corrimos riesgos, unas veces ganamos y otras perdimos, de eso se trata, en definitiva esto es un juego”.

Nicole Abreu, la capitana, manifestó que comenzaron muy desconcentradas y un poco confiadas, “como Argentina les había ganado y nosotras a las propias argentinas, era lógico que pudiéramos ganar, pero en el quinto set no concretamos, no obstante esto no ha acabado y todavía tenemos posibilidades de llegar a la final”.

DOMINICANAS DERROTAN 3-2 A SU RIVAL MÁS EXIGENTE: ARGENTINA

República Dominicana tuvo que batallar para doblegar al equipo de Argentina 21-25, 25-23, 23-25, 25-19 y 15-5, el tercer partido de cinco sets, todos precisamente en la última jornada preliminar de la III Copa Panamericana (f) sub-18 con sede en el coliseo de la Ciudad Deportiva.

Aunque con un solo parcial a su favor las quisqueyanas aseguraban el primer lugar del grupo A, superaron la resistencia impuesta por las rivales desde el mismo comienzo para llevarse el éxito de forma invicta y avanzar directamente a las semifinales del sábado.

La máxima anotadora del excitante choque que duró dos horas y nueve minutos fue Natalia Martínez (25), a la que siguieron sus compañeras Massiel Matos (20), Lisbeth Rosario (14) y Vielka Peralta (13), y por Argentina terminaron con doble dígitos Anahi Tosi (23) y María Corbalán (21).

“Fue un juego difícil, un poquito desconcentrado por mis muchachas, mientras las argentinas jugaban muy bien, lo que no hizo contra Perú y perdió, pero es un equipo bueno, domina muy bien la pelota y las mías se confiaron un poco”, manifestó el brasileño Alexandre Ceccato, entrenador de las caribeñas.

Su capitana Yokaty Pérez igual consideró que entraron a la cancha sin apenas concentrarse. “Fue increíble, como nunca y cuando conseguíamos el ritmo volvíamos a perderlo, y fue incómodo porque Argentina es un equipo que domina bien, no comete errores, siempre anda buscando solución en la cancha”.

Por su parte, el director técnico sudamericano Mauro Silvestre señaló que “recién comenzamos el año con esta lid internacional y hoy enfrentamos a un adversario como las dominicanas, entre las primeras del mundo, así que estamos a la altura de las circunstancias, sin dudas ellas apretaron con el saque y cayó nuestra recepción y la efectividad en el ataque, lo que conllevó a la desconcentración. No estoy contento, aunque sí conforme”.

Azul Benítez, la capitana, comentó que “sabíamos que era un partido duro que podíamos incluso ganar, no pudimos, pero estamos satisfechas con nuestra actuación y esperamos mañana triunfar frente a Chile en los cuartos de finales”.

CUBA GANA GRUPO B Y ÚLTIMO BOLETO PARA EL MUNDIAL SUB-18

El equipo cubano dominó sin contratiempos a Costa Rica 25-2, 25-6 y 25-11, así como el grupo B y obtuvo la última vacante mundialista en el cierre de la preliminar de la III Copa Panamericana femenina sub-18 de voleibol.

En 53 minutos sellaron el triunfo las anfitrionas en el único partido de los cuatro celebrados que concluyó en tres parciales y en el cual sumaron doble dígitos la esquina Diaris Pérez (15) y la central Ailama Cese (10). Por las visitantes la opuesta Allison Font sumó 8 de los 19 puntos que solo pudo anotar su selección.

Tomás Fernández, director técnico de casa, manifestó conmovido “ya estamos en el mundial, el objetivo cumplido, espero que las muchachas sigan concentradas y caminemos hacia el podio. Hoy tratamos de aprovechar el rival, regalamos el saque para que ellas hicieran la transición a nuestro terreno y entrenar el contraataque, así como educarlas a que no cometan errores”.

La capitana Aidachi Agüero disfrutó doblemente la victoria y la clasificación mundial pues celebraba su aniversario 16 y trasmitió la alegría de todo el equipo. “Estamos muy felices, es el fruto de 15 meses esforzándonos en los entrenamientos y del sacrificio tanto de nosotras como de nuestros entrenadores, ahora vamos con todo para luchar en semifinales y por la Copa”.

El joven Andrés López, DT de Costa Rica, reconoció que “las rivales nos trataron bien, nos puso el balón para intentar jugar, no pudimos, todavía hay niñas asustadas tras acabarse el partido, pero lo importante es que intentaron superar la adversidad, no fue posible, pero resultó una enseñanza. Felicitamos a Cuba por su plaza al mundial y por la organización extraordinaria de este evento y nos llevamos todos una grata impresión”.

Mariana Rodríguez, su capitana, significó el alto nivel del torneo y añadió que “vinimos a aprender y hacer el máximo de esfuerzo, sin embargo hoy no dimos lo mejor de nosotras, se reflejó a la hora de la unión del equipo, pero el evento ha servido para una experiencia increíble tanto deportiva como por conocer la riqueza histórica de Cuba”.

PUERTO RICANS WIN OVER CHILE IN FIRST TIE-BREAK AT U18 CUP

Havana, Cuba, March 19, 2015 – In the first match which lasted five sets, Puerto Rico suffered to defeat Chile 25-21, 29-31, 25-19, 22-25, and 15-13 and ended with a 2-1 record in the Pool B of the III U18 Girls' Pan American Volleyball Cup.

It was a two-hour and ten-minute game which was defined by the superior attack by the Puerto Ricans (58-45) and less errors (45-50); precisely the two last ones by the South Americans caused their sentence.

On the Puerto Rican side, the top scorers were the outside hitter Ivania Ortiz and Paola Salas (both with 19), followed by their team-mate Dariana Hollingsworth (13) and the captain Joscelyn Coronel (11); whereas by their rivals, they were Josefa Martí (17) and Amalia Carvajal (12).

The coach of Puerto Rico, Luis Aponte, despite the victory, was not satisfied as his girls were quite erratic with a six or seven-missed service average per set.

“In the second where we lost 29-31, we made 22 errors. It means the rivals only need to score nine points. Thanks to God we ended victorious, with lots of work as the intensity of my team was weak. We did not do enough to deserve the triumph, although the Chileans also made faults. Fortunately, at the end, the victory was on our side.

Coronel expressed “I think we were overconfident. We scouted our opponents very well and then we knew what we had to do. However at certain moment we did not fulfil the instructions and we let two sets escape. Nevertheless the match was good, every one of us enjoyed it, and it is another chance to compete.”

Hugo Jauregui, coach of Chile, rated the match as “beautiful between two similar teams. However the last two errors cost us the triumph. Anyway, we were able to come from behind twice and tie. Two years ago, the Puerto Ricans also won over us 3-2, but now we are happy as we have finished in the pool as expected. It has been a good championship so far. We need more games like today.

Catalina Reyes, their captain, explained “we failed in the decisive points. However we fought and obliged our rivals to continue playing. Anyway, we want to keep improving in quarter-finals and not make the same mistakes.”

MEXICO DEFEATS PERU IN ANOTHER CLOSE MATCH

The Mexican team defeated Peru 25-21, 25-21, 23-25, 20-25, and 15-13 to finish tied in win and loss (1-2) in the preliminary phase of the Pool A at the III Girls' U18 Volleyball Pan Am Cup.

In the second tie-break match of this tournament which lasted two hours, the most effective Central Americans in attack were Karla Mirelis (15), Katya García, Karina Flores (11), and Alondra Amaro (10).

However, a Peruvian, the opposite player, Katherine Regalado, was the top scorer (20), followed by her team-mates Nicole Abreu and Leslie Leyva (15) and Maricarmen Guerrero (14).

Cuban, Ricardo Naranjo, coach of Mexico, said that "after two losses they understood what they used to do at home and at a training camp. I think they have returned to their game and have recovered particularly their attitude and desire. Sometimes we can have fitness, tactics and technique, but not heart. Nevertheless today they demonstrated they have the greatest heart of the world."

The captain, Katrina Flores, assessed that "it was a match with a lot of surprises. There was a combination of errors and successes. However we improved our impetus and the new players, more confident, have started to be felt in the court and we have had a better teamwork. I am happy and we have another chance to reach a more outstanding place."

Spaniard, Juan Diego Garcia, coach of Peru, stated that "we committed mistakes as we looked at the rival too much. Actually we should have looked inside us. When it was attained, we were able to come from behind and could even have the chance to win it. That's why I congratulate them."

"On the other hand I think we were some conditioned to the Mexican service which at times was good. We worked on the high ball to minimize our opponent's options. We took some risks. On occasions we won and on others we lost. It's all about as in deed this is a game."

Nicole Abreu, the captain, expressed that they started much unfocused and a little overconfident. "Given Argentina had defeated them and we have won over the Argentinians, it was logic to be able to win. However in the fifth set we did not get it. Nevertheless the event has not ended and we still have the chance to reach the final."

DOMINICANS OVERCOME 3-2 THEIR MOST DEMANDING RIVAL: ARGENTINA

Havana, Cuba, March 19, 2015 – The Dominican team had to battle to beat Argentina 21-25, 25-23, 23-25, 25-19, and 15-5 in the third 5-set match which have precisely taken place on the final day of the preliminary phase of the III Girls' U18 Pan Am Volleyball Cup at the Coliseum of the Sports City.

Although the Dominicans only needed to win one single set to assure the first position in the Pool A, they overcame their opposition imposed by their rivals from the very beginning to win unbeatably and go directly to semi-finals next Saturday.

The top scorer, of this exciting clash which lasted two hours and nine minutes, was Natalia Martínez (25), followed by her team-mates Massiel Matos (20), Lisbeth Rosario (14) and Vielka Peralta (13); whereas by Argentina, Anahí Tosi (23) and María Corbalán (21) tallied double digits.

It was a difficult game, my girls were a little unfocused while the Argentinians played well which they did not do against Peru when they lost. So, they are a good team. They control the ball very well and mine were a little overconfident", stated the Brazilian, Alexandre Ceccato, coach of the Caribbean team.

Their captain, Yokaty Pérez, also considered that they entered the court without being really focused. “It was unbelievable, like never before and when we got the rhythm we lost it again. It was uncomfortable as Argentina is a team which controls the ball well. They do not make errors and, if failed, they try to find a solution in the court.”

The South American coach said that “we have just started to play this year at this international event and today we met an opponent who is among the top in the world. So we are at the height of the circumstances. Without any doubt they forced us with the service and our reception and effectiveness in the attack failed. It resulted in lack of concentration. I am not happy, but satisfied.”

Azul Benítez, the captain, commented that “we knew it was going to be a hard game which we could have even won, but we did not get it. However we are satisfied with our performance and we hope win over Chile in quarter-finals tomorrow.”

CUBA WINS POOL B AND LAST AVAILABLE TICKET TO U18 WCH

Cuban team dominated easily Costa Rica 25-2, 25-6, and 25-11, as well as the Pool B and so they obtained the last available ticket to the world championship on the final day of the preliminary phase of the III U18 Girls’ Pan American Volleyball Cup.

In 53 minutes, the host team sealed the victory in the unique match of today’s calendar which ended in three sets where the outside hitter Dairis Pérez (15) and the middle blocker Aliama Cese (10) had a double-digit tally. On the visiting team, only the opposite player Allison Font scored 8 of the 19 points which only tallied her team.

Tomás Fernández, local coach, touched, expressed that “we are already in the world championship. The objective has been accomplished. Hopefully the girls will continue focused and will move forward to the podium. Today we tried to get the most from our rival. We gifted the service to make them do the transition to our side to train the counterattack as well as educate them not to make errors.”

The captain, Aidachi Agüero, enjoyed doubly the triumph and the qualification as it was her 16th birthday. She passed on the joy of the whole team. “We are pretty happy. It is the fruit of 15 months making a great effort when training and of the sacrifice both of the team members and coaches. Now we will do our best in semi-finals and for the title of the Cup.”

Andrés López, young coach of Costa Rica, recognized that “the rivals treated us well. They placed the ball to make us play, but we were not able to. There are girls on their nerves even after the match. However what matters is that they tried to overcome the adversity. It was not possible, but it was a teaching. We congratulate Cuba for the quota to the U18 WCH and the excellent organization of this event. We all have gotten a nice impression.”

Mariana Rodríguez, their captain, highlighted the top-level of the tournament and added that “we came to learn and do our utmost. However we did not do our best. It was reflected on the teamwork. Nevertheless the event has been an unbelievable experience both in sports and in the wealth of history of Cuba we have had the chance to learn.”
