*NOTE1: For the Classification, Quarterfinal and Semifinal Rounds, according to the FIVB General Competition Regulations, it must be avoided that teams from the same group play each other.

*NOTE2: According to the established competition format and the FIVB General Regulations, for the Classification, Quarterfinal and Semifinal Rounds, if three teams from the same group qualify, the match between highest ranked team and lowest ranked team of their Preliminary Round will be repeated.

*NOTE3: Highest Ranking (HR) followed by a number (1, 2 or 3)indicates the team's position among the teams from other pools with the same position (1st, 2nd or 3rd) in their group after the Group Preliminary Round based on the VIS point ratio result.

*NOTE4: Winner of M132 = Winner of Match #13, etc.

Uruguay se impuso a Guatemala por novena posición

LA HABANA, Cuba, 1 de abril de 2017.- Uruguay derrotó a Guatemala 3-2 (25-22, 16-25, 25-17, 21-25, 15-12) y finalizó noveno en la IV Copa Panamericana Sub-18 que concluye este domingo en el Coliseo de la Ciudad Deportiva.

Muy diferente fue este choque al anterior durante la clasificatoria en el grupo C, en el cual las sudamericanas voltearon el partido con desventaja de 0-2 para salir airoso igualmente en cinco parciales. Hoy cualquiera de los dos pudo ganar.

Por las ganadoras lideraron la ofensiva Sofia Zuvich (14) y Natalia Rodríguez (11), mientras anotaron más por las centroamericanas Paola Alvarado (14) y Daniela Tornoe (12).

Tanto uno como otro equipo sacaron provecho de esta Copa, pues contribuye al desarrollo de esta categoría especialmente y es un empuje para que sigan trabajando y luchen por mayores rendimientos.

Luis Baladón, dirigente de Uruguay: “Un partido cambiante, empezaron muy concentrados, sabían lo que tenían que hacer porque nos enfrentamos en preliminar, pero después de indecisiones por los nervios supieron con garra y actitud sacar el juego y no ser los últimos”.

“Y por los años en este deporte, quiero felicitar a la sede por la perfecta organización tanto en el hotel como en el Coliseo, y mucho agradecimiento porque nos hicieron sentir como en casa, si nos quejamos cuando algo anda mal también debemos valorar y expresar lo que se hace bien”.

Edgar Callejas, dirigente de Guatemala: “Ambos planteles tuvimos muchos altibajos y nosotros no supimos cerrar, pero es que son necesarios los partidos internacionales para que ellas sepan jugar los últimos puntos y de experiencia en general”.

“Esta cantidad de juegos aquí les va a servir y más cuando jugamos con equipos con más torneos, pero al final hubo parciales en que se divirtieron y ganaron, pero luego se presionan, es la falta de fogueo y lo ganarán con el tiempo”.

Puerto Rico venció a Costa Rica para asegurar el séptimo

LA HABANA, Cuba, 1 de abril de 2017.- El equipo de Puerto Rico aseguró el séptimo escaño al dominar a Costa Rica en parciales corridos de 25-9, 25-20 y 25-21 durante la penúltima fecha de la IV Copa Panamericana Sub-18 con sede en el Palacio de los Deportes.

Las boricuas, que dijeron adiós con record de 2-2, hoy atacaron y bloquearon más que sus rivales de turno, no obstante solo en el segmento inicial ganaron sin presión, porque en los otros dos las centroamericanas (1-3) hicieron resistencia para contribuir a un espectáculo más movido.

Sofía Victoria (13) y Ariana Pagán (11) resultaron las que más tributaron a su equipo triunfador. Por las contrarias la única que llegó a doble dígitos fue Tamara Espinoza (11), pero su compañera Isayana Soto aportó 9.

Julio Meléndez, dirigente de Puerto Rico: “Pudimos hacer mejor trabajo pero lo importante es que no tuvimos ninguna lesionada y terminamos al menos ganando, pero tenemos que evaluar algunos elementos, y seguir laborando duro para futuras competencias”

Andrés López, dirigente de Costa Rica: “Lo fundamental es que las chicas retornan contentas, sin problemas físicos, con una victoria sobre Uruguay 3-2 que levanta el ánimo, pero lógicamente yo espero más de ellas, aunque caímos en un grupo del que los otros dos, Cuba y Colombia llegaron a semifinales. Me voy con un balance positivo y optimista de que si jugamos más podemos obtener mayores rendimientos”.

Colombia sorprendió a Dominicana y discutirá el oro

LA HABANA, Cuba, 1 de abril de 2017.- Colombia sorprendió a República Dominicana al salir airoso en un luchado partido que se extendió a cinco sets (10-25, 22-25, 25-16, 28-26, 15-11) y discutirá este domingo la medalla de oro de la IV Copa Panamericana Sub-18.

Las sudamericanas, estimuladas por el boleto mundialista ganado en la jornada anterior, organizaron su defensa y controlaron el saque, creando dificultades a sus fuertes adversarias, quienes arribaron a la sede ya clasificadas a la justa del orbe.

Manuela Ibarguen con 22 puntos encabezó la ofensiva colombiana, seguida de Ana Olaya (16) y Valerín Carabali (12).

Por las perdedoras Madeline Guillén resultó la máxima anotadora del choque con 28, escoltada por sus compañeras Yaneirys Rodríguez (14) y Yanlis Feliz Sena (12).

El plantel de Colombia avanzó a esta semifinal después de ganar en el grupo B a Costa Rica (3-0) y perdió frente a Cuba (1-3); en cuartos de finales dominó a México (3-1), lo que contribuyó a lograr la clasificación mundial por el posterior revés de Chile.

Las dominicanas dominaron el grupo C con triunfos sobre Uruguay (3-0), Guatemala (3-0) y México (3-1) y pasaron a semifinal directamente como mejor primer lugar de las tres zonas.

Alexandre Ceccato, dirigente de República Dominicana: “No me sorprendió la actuación del equipo colombiano porque es muy peligroso, jugó muy mal el primer set pero después se fue creciendo, al final jugó mejor y mereció la victoria”.

“Aunque no tenemos en Cuba a nuestra mejor jugadora Natalia Martínez, eso no fue la diferencia de este juego ni una justificación, pudimos ganar tranquilamente, pero esto es una experiencia de que para vencer hay que tener decisión en la cancha”, indicó.

Antonio Rizola, dirigente de Colombia: “Hace seis años que no trabajaba en cancha, era manager en Brasil, así que esta victoria con menos de dos meses de estar con estas muchachas es la alegría más grande que he podido tener, pues nos esforzamos por cambiar la mentalidad de ellas. Con este triunfo Colombia tiene un gran futuro y vamos a encaminar eso”.

Valerin Carabali, capitana colombiana: “Estamos super feliz, es la primera vez que llegamos a una final en esta categoría, creo que ganamos por nuestra actitud, que peleamos más y nos olvidamos que ellas eran las favoritas, pero estuvimos muy unidas y con buena comunicación, esa fue la clave”.

Yaneirys Rodríguez, capitana dominicana: ”Felicitamos a las colombianas porque ganaron su pase al Mundial en esta Copa, boleto que ya nosotras obtuvimos el año pasado. Hoy sostuvimos un buen partido pero pudimos haber dado más, ahora a pensar en que mañana tenemos que luchar por el bronce”.

Sensacional triunfo de Cuba sobre Argentina y discutirá el oro

LA HABANA, Cuba, 1 de abril de 2017.- Cuba derrotó sensacionalmente a Argentina 3-2 (20-25, 27-25, 18-25, 25-16, 15-11) y discutirá frente a Colombia este domingo la medalla de oro de la IV Copa Panamericana Sub-18 en el Palacio de los Deportes.

El metal de bronce lo discutirán las argentinas frente a República Dominicana, que en la anterior semifinal cayó ante las colombianas también en cinco parciales (10-25, 22-25, 25-16, 28-26, 15-11).

En el reñido choque Cuba-Argentina las anfitrionas tuvieron en Elizabeth Vicet (26) y Ailama Cesé (24) a sus más firmes puntales, de hecho máximas anotadoras del juego, y sus compañeras Ivy May Vila y Yamisleydis Viltres aportaron 12 y 11 puntos, respectivamente.

Por las rivales tres lograron doble dígitos, Sofia Meinardi (17), Martina Delucci (16) y Candela Salinas (10).

Las cubanas ganaron el grupo B al vencer a Costa Rica (3-0) y a Colombia (3-1), y en cuartos de finales dominaron a Chile (3-0).

Algo similar hicieron las argentinas en el grupo A con triunfos sobre Chile (3-1) y Puerto Rico (3-0), pero avanzaron directo a semifinal como segundo mejor líder de zona. Las líderes de zonas fueron las dominicanas por el A en calidad de invictas.

Juan Carlos Cruz, dirigente de Cuba: “Sabíamos que había que trabajar duro contra Argentina porque tiene team work y carretera, y mi equipo con poca experiencia, pero bien preparadas física y mentalmente para luchar por la victoria”.

“En los momentos precisos aparecía el bloqueo y el saque estuvo bien dirigido, creo que cuando terminó el tercer parcial y con desventaja de 1-2 les dije que merecían el triunfo y podían lograrlo, y realmente se crecieron”, dijo.

Estanislao Vachino, dirigente de Argentina: “Creo que somos los dos grandes equipos del torneo, nos encontramos en semifinales y era 3-0 para nosotros, pero nos fuimos en el segundo, Cuba creció y no se equivocó cuando tuvo que cerrar el set y fue el justo ganador, espero tengan una gran final mañana”.

Elizabeth Vicet, capitana cubana: “Fue un choque muy reñido porque ninguno de los dos equipos nos dábamos por vencido, ya cumplimos una meta, el boleto al Mundial, ahora es alcanzar la medalla de oro y estaré encabezando esa batalla. Yo pedí el número 3 de mi uniforme por Mireya Luis, tricampeona olímpica, y quiero ser igual o mejor que ella, así que me siento con una gran responsabilidad”.

La jugadora de esquina Martina Delucchi, de Argentina: “Pensábamos en esta Copa hacer todo lo mejor posible y estar en la discusión de medallas y lo cumplimos, pues tenemos asegurada plaza en el Mundial como sede. Sin embargo hoy se nos fue el partido, nos desconcentramos y además su bloqueo nos cerró bastante porque en realidad son jugadoras altas”.

Programa Final de Domingo:

14:00 – México v Chile (por quinto lugar)

16:00 – Dominicana vs Argentina (por el bronce)

18:00 – Colombia vs Cuba (por el oro)

Uruguay overcome Guatemala for ninth position

HAVANA, Cuba, April 1, 2017–Uruguay overcame Guatemala 3-2 (25-22, 16-25, 25-17, 21-25, 15-12) and finished in the ninth place of the IV Pan American U-18 Girls’ Cup which will be closed on Sunday at the Sports City Coliseum.

This match was quite different to the previous one during the preliminary round in Pool C where the South Americans came from behind with disadvantage 0-2 to win it also in tie-break. Today either of them could have succeeded.

For the winning team, Sofia Zuvich (14) and Natalia Rodriguez (11) led the attack while Paola Alvarado (14) and Daniela Tornoe (12) were the top-scorers by the Central Americans.

Both teams benefited from this tournament contributing to the development of this age category and encouraging them to continue working and fighting for better performance.

Luis Baladon, Uruguayan coach: “It was a changing match where they started much focused on it by knowing what to do as we had met each other in the preliminary round. However after some indecisions because of nerves, they knew to close it with fighting spirit and attitude and not to finish at the bottom.”

“Given the years dedicated to this sport, I would like to congratulate the LOC on the perfect organization both at the hotel and the competition hall and also express our gratitude for having made us feel like at home. If we complain when something is wrong, we should also praise and refer to what is well done.”

Edgar Callejas, Guatemalan coach: “Both teams had ups and downs. We did not know how to close it. However the international games are precisely necessary to learn how to play the final points and gain in experience.”

“This match amount will help them and particularly when playing against much more experienced teams. However in the end there were sets where they got fun and were able to win. They have to learn not to be under too much pressure which it is the lack of games, but it is a matter of time.”

Puerto Rico defeats Costa Rica to secure seventh place

HAVANA, Cuba, April 1, 2017–Puerto Rico secured the seventh place by dominating Costa Rica in straight sets (25-9, 25-20, 25-21) on the penultimate day of the IV Pan American U-18 Girls’ Cup taking place at the Sports City Coliseum.

Puerto Ricans attacked and blocked more. However only in the first set, they could win without any pressure as in the other sets the Central Americans displayed resistance contributing to a more exciting show.

Sofia Victoria (13), Ariana Pagan (11) were the top-scorers by the wining team while for their rivals, Tamara Espinoza was the only one who scored double figures (11) followed by her teammate Isayana Soto who contributed 9 points.

Julio Meléndez, coach of Puerto Rico: “We could have made a better work, but what matters is there was not any injured player and we finished at least winning. However we will have to assess some playing elements and continue working hard for future competitions.”

Andres Lopez, coach of Costa Rica: “The essential thing is the girls will return happily without physical problems with a yesterday’s victory which will chin them up. Although, obviously I expected more, but we were in a pool where the other teams, Cuba and Colombia, got to move on to semifinals. I am leaving with a positive balance and optimistic as if we might have more games, we will obtain better results.”

Colombia surprises Dominican Republic and will go for the title

HAVANA, Cuba, April 1, 2017–Colombia surprised Dominican Republic succeeding in a hard-fought match 3-2 (10-25, 22-25, 25-16, 28-26, 15-11) and will play for the gold medal of the IV Pan American U18 Girls’ Cup.

The South Americans, encouraged by the world ticket earned on the previous day, organized their defense and controlled the service creating difficulties to their strong rivals who had come to this tournament already qualified to the major event.

Manuela Ibarguen (22) led the Colombian offensive followed by Ana Olaya (16) and Valerin Carabali (12).

For the losing team, Madeline Guillen (28) was the match best scorer followed by her teammates Yaneirys Rodriguez (14) and Yanlis Feliz Sena (12).

Colombians moved on to the match for the title after winning in Pool B over Costa Rica (3-0), but they lost against Cuba (1-3); in quarterfinals, they dominated Mexico (3-1) contributing to get the world qualification after the Chileans' loss.

The Dominicans headed the Pool C with victories against Uruguay (3-0), Guatemala (3-0) and Mexico (3-1), and secured direct pass to semifinals as the best pool winner of the preliminary round.

Alexandre Ceccato, Brazilian coach of Dominican Republic: "It did not surprise me the Colombian team's performance because they are quite dangerous. They played the first set very bad. However they were growing and at the end they played better deserving the victory."

"Although we have not had our best player, Natalia Martínez, it was not which made the difference as we could have won easily. It has demonstrated that to be able to win it is crucial to be decisive on the court."

Antonio Rizola, Brazilian coach of Colombia: "I was for six year without working for the indoor discipline. I used to be the manager in Brazil. So this victory achieved after only two months coaching them is the greatest joy I have ever had as we made efforts to change their playing mentality. This triumph means Colombia has a great future and we will go for it."

Valerin Carabali, Colombian captain: "We are extremely happy as it is the first time we get to the final at this age category. I think we won because of our attitude fighting more and forgetting they were the favorite ones. In addition we were very united communicating each other; it was the key factor."

Yaneirys Rodriguez, Dominican captain: "We congratulate the Colombians on their world championship berth earned in this tournament which we had already won last year. Today we had a very good match, but we could have done more. Now it remains to think of tomorrow's match for the bronze medal."

Sensational Cuban victory over Argentina and will go for the crown

HAVANA, Cuba, April 1, 2017 – Sensationally Cuba won over Argentina 3-2 (20-25, 27-25, 25-18, 16-25, 15-10) and will meet Colombia for the crown of the VI Pan American U18 Girls' Cup at the Sports City Coliseum.

Bronze-medal match will played between Argentina and Dominican Republic who in the previous semifinal was defeated by Colombia also in five sets (10-25, 22-25, 25-16, 28-26, 15-11).

In the very close match Argentina-Cuba, Elizabeth Vicet (26) and Aliama Cesé (24) were the firmest pillars and match best scorers by the local ones followed by her teammates Ivy Mary Villa and Yamisleidys Viltres who contributed 12 and 11 points respectively.

For their rivals, Sofia Meinardi (17), Martina Delucchi (16) and Candela Salinas (10) scored double figures.

Cubans won the Pool B by defeating Costa Rica (3-0) and Colombia (3-1), and dominating; in quarterfinals, Chile (3-0)

Something similarly, in Pool A, Argentineans did with victories over Chile (3-1) and Puerto Rico (3-0), but they additionally secured direct pass to semifinals as second best pool winner in the preliminary round where the best ones were the Dominicans in Pool A as undefeated.

Juan Carlos Cruz, Cuban coach: “We knew it would have to work hard against Argentina because of their teamwork and practice. On the contrary, my girls without experience but well prepared physically and mentally to fight for the triumph.”

At crucial times, the blocking came up and the service was well directed. When the third set finished with disadvantage 1-2, I told them they deserved to win and they could get it. Actually they brought the best out of them.”

Estanislao Vachino, Argentinean coach: “I think both of us are the greatest teams in the tournament. Unfortunately we met in semifinals where it was being 3-0 for us. However, in the second one, Cuba brought the best of them and they did not make errors to close the set finally becoming the fair winner. I hope they could have a great match in the final tomorrow.”

Elizabeth Vicet, Cuban captain: “It was a very close match because none of the teams never gave up. We have already fulfilled a goal: the world ticket. Now we will have to win the gold medal in a match where I will be doing battle. By the way, I requested to wear number 3 in the uniform because of Mireya Luis, a triple Olympic champion, to whom I would like to look alike or be better than her. So I feel with a great responsibility.”

Martina Delucchi, an Argentinean wing spiker: “For this tournament we planned doing our best to be at the podium and we have attained it given we had secured a quota plaza for the WCH as host team. However, today, we let the escape the victory losing concentration and facing opposing players who blocked us a lot with tall athletes.”

Final Program on Sunday:

14:00 – Mexico vs. Chile (fifth place)

16:00 – Dominican Republic vs. Argentina (bronze)

18:00 – Colombia vs. Cuba (gold)
