Teams are ready to compete at Men's U23 Pan American Cup

GUATEMALA CITY, Guatemala, October 14, 2018. - The five teams registered at the fourth Men's U23 Pan American Cup, are ready for the competition that starts the qualifying process for the 2021 FIVB age-group World Championship.

Cuba enters as favorite, a team that is the FIVB World sub champion and with eight players who competed at the FIVB World Championship this past September.

These are the coaches' first impressions on the eve of the competition.

Nicolás Vives, Head Coach of Cuba: "This is a strong team; our goal is to win the event. We will give rest to some of the players that have had a heavy year, but they will help the team's performance. This group is FIVB world sub-champion and also won bronze in the U-21, its group that has been working very hard and has lots of experience. We hope to have more character for next year's international event, including the Lima 2019 Pan American Games".

Reider Lucas, Head Coach of Guatemala: "Our goal in this type of events is to add points to our ranking, try to keep our fourth place in Norceca. This team is not the same that won the Central American age-group title a few weeks ago; several players have to attend their studies, so we are including players from younger categories thinking about their preparation for future events".

José Luis Martell, Head Coach of México: "We are eager to compete and stand out. This is a young team; they are from our U-21 category because the U-23 category has almost disappeared because the players have to attend their studies or jobs. The team has a lot of potential, they are tall and they have never had an international experience like this one, they will make the best of it".

Osman Hernández, Head Coach of Nicaragua: "The team has just finished the Central American championship here in Guatemala and we went back to Nicaragua to continue our preparation. We made a variation, a middle blocker for a wing spiker and the rest is the same. My boys will give their best, as they always do and they are ready for this new challenge. We want to gain experience because this is a team from an inferior category".

Edwin Jiménez, Head Coach of Peru: "The team is very young, an average of 19 years old and we are looking a progressive development. One objective is to improve in ranking, this helps our men's division in Peru and our biggest challenge is to compete at world level".

Equipos están listos para la Copa Panamericana Sub-23 Masculina

CIUDAD DE GUATEMALA, Guatemala, 14 de octubre de 2018.- Los cinco equipos que se presentan a la cuarta Copa Panamericana Sub-23 Masculina, están listos para la competencia que inicia el proceso de clasificación al Campeonato Mundial 2021 de la FIVB de la categoría.

Cuba entra como favorito a la competencia, un equipo que es subcampeón Mundial de la FIVB y con ocho jugadores que participarán en el Mundial Masculino de la FIVB el pasado mes de septiembre.

Estas son las primeras impresiones de los entrenadores previos a la competencia.

Nicolás Vives, Entrenador de Cuba: “El equipo viene muy fuerte, nuestra meta es ganar el evento. Vamos a darles descanso a jugadores que han tenido una carga grande, pero siempre ayudarán al equipo. Este grupo fue subcampeón mundial de la FIVB y en la categoría Sub-21 fuimos bronce, es un grupo que ha trabajado duro y de mucha experiencia. Esperamos que el próximo año lleguemos con más carácter a las competencias internacionales, incluyendo los Juegos Panamericanos de Lima 2019”.

Reider Lucas, Entrenador de Guatemala: “El objetivo en este tipo de eventos es acumular puntos para el ranking de Norceca y mantenernos en los cuatro primeros lugares. Este no es el mismo equipo que se coronó campeón centroamericano de la categoría hace unas semanas; varios de los jugadores tienen compromisos de estudios por lo que tenemos jugadores de categorías inferiores para prepararlos en vistas a otros eventos”.

José Luis Martell, Entrenador de México: “Venimos con muchas ganas de competir y de sobresalir. Tenemos un equipo joven, es un grupo de la categoría Sub-21 puesto que la categoría Sub-23 casi ha desaparecido por los compromisos de estudios y trabajo de los jugadores. El equipo tiene muy buen potencial, tiene estatura y viene a aprovechar esta oportunidad internacional que nunca habían tenido.”

Osman Hernández, Entrenador de Nicaragua: “El equipo viene de competir en el campeonato centroamericano de la categoría acá en Guatemala y al llegar a Nicaragua se continuó la preparación. Hicimos un cambio, un central por un jugador de punta, de allí el equipo se mantiene igual. Los muchachos vienen a entregar todo, algo que los ha caracterizado siempre y están listos para asumir el reto. Buscamos adquirir mucha experiencia porque el equipo es de una categoría menor”.

Edwin Jiménez, Entrenador de Perú: “El equipo es muy joven, tiene un promedio de 19 años y estamos buscando un desarrollo progresivo. Uno de los objetivos es escalar en el ranking, esto sirve para el crecimiento del voleibol masculino en Perú y el objetivo y reto grande es estar compitiendo en el ámbito mundial”.
