St. Lucia beats St. Maarten in straight to remain undefeated

St. Johns, Antigua, August 18, 2018 – St. Lucia poured in another sterling performance in the process of defending their ECVA title, this time defeating St. Maarten in straight sets to keep a perfect record to date in the ECVA Senior Female competition

St. Lucia was hardly pushed and stayed in control throughout the set eventually winning 25-18 25 - 18 and 25 -20. St. Maarten on the other showed marked improvement play but it wasn't enough to unsettle the St. Lucians

The improvement of the St. Maarten team was noticed by their coach – Dimitri Beauperthuy.

“I told my girls that this is the best game that we have played for the tournament so far. It is unfortunate that we did not win but the major lesson learnt is that we now that we can compete with the best teams in this competition. This sets us in good stead for the quarterfinals that we have to play later, so in general I am positive going forward.

Coach Challery of St. Lucia had a pensive look on his face. “Things are going as planned so far. We are happy with the win and also in short order so we can get some additional rest. We changed a few things from the last time and that seemed to work a little better as used one of our outside players in the opposite position and I like what I saw there. The focus shifts to the semifinal but the attitude will remain the same, whoever qualifies to play against us, we will be ready with our “A” game

For coach Challery, Outside Hitter Kerin Neptune and Middle Blocker Yosherbel led the scoring with 13 points each. Ace player Lisa Casimie also chipped in with 10.

On the losing side no one had double figures in points. Akilah Meulens led six other scorers with 6 points.

The team scoresheet was a bit lopsided in most categories. St. Lucia dominated the Spike column with 31 to 12. They also came out on top in blocks 6 -3 and had 11 aces to 4. However St. Lucia gave up 37 errors and earns points only 27 times.

The quarterfinals are now set with St. Kitts/Nevis playing against Grenada and Antigua/Barbuda versus St. Maarten. The winners go forward to meet St. Lucia and St. Martin in the semis.

Grenada takes Bermuda in four sets

St. Johns, Antigua, August 18, 2018 – Grenada was pushed a little by a young inexperienced Bermuda team who literally stole a game from them in a four set match which marked the end of pool play in the ECVA Senior Female Competition.

After winning the first two set relatively easily Grenada allowed relaxation to set in in the third set. However Bermuda was not in the mood of just rolling over and took the game to Grenada and forced a 4th set. Grenada quickly changed gears and eventually to the fourth and the set 25-20, 25 -16, 22-25 and 25 – 13.

Raphael Braithwaite who philosophy is a win is a win was pleased that he is still in a position to go further in the tournament. “Grenada has been having some awful runs in this tournament in fact I think this is the first time that we have gotten thus far. So yes I am satisfied with the win especially since we tested some of our bench players to ensure that they are game ready in case of any eventuality. At the moment we are going to rest and get ready for our game this evening”, he said.

Juanita Blee- coach of Bermuda was full of glee. “This is amazing to a least come away with one win. This would place the girls positive light. We got better and better at little things and more importantly they are now fully aware of the level of these types of tournaments and understand the level of work they would have to put out in order to compete. I feel satisfied that we are definitely on our way to improving our skills and improving as a team overall”, she beamed.

Renisha Stafford led the individual scoresheet with 13 points. Her Grenadian counterparts in Sydney Ashton and Skakira Colleymore each contributed 10 points. Stafford appeared to be the most dominant factor of the match as a Middle Blocker. There she had 8 Spike and 7 important Blocks.

Jade Weaver led the Bermudans with 10 points as no one else managed double figures

On the team scoresheet Grenada led in Spikes 30-16, enjoyed a slight edge in Blocks 7-6 and had a whopping 22 Aces to 9. One area of concern however must have been errors since Grenada contributed 43 of Bermuda’s 74 points overall from errors. In return Bermuda donated 38 of Grenada’s 97 points

At this stage Grenada heads to the quarterfinals stage while Bermuda heads home with plenty of learning nuggets.

Grenada eases into semis with straight set win over St. Kitts/Nevis

St. Johns, Antigua, August 18, 2018 – Grenada took all of 67 minutes to depose of team St. Kitts Nevis in straight sets (25 -17, 25-21 and 25-17) in the first quarter final match of the ECVA Senior Female Competition

Grenada came out swinging, led by middle players Renisha Stafford 15 points and Sydney Ashton 13 points, they gained the advantage in overall team attack - 33 to 16.

For Team St. Kitts/Nevis Shanicia Dyer with 11 points tried to carry the fight but the overall listlessness of the St. Kitts/Nevis girls never threatened their opponents. No one else had double figures for the losers

Errors were dead even at 32 but Grenada enjoyed the edge in Aces (5-4) and in Blocks (5-3)

Coach Shawn Sea Brookes was visibly upset. “The only good thing about this performance is that it cannot get any worse. There was no energy, little effort, no communication, and no movement. This definitely the worse performance of the tournament and I am very disappointed especially since I know they can do better as they exhibited against Antigua and French St. Maarten. If I am to take away the positive I think that we now know the level which we have to attain in order to compete at this level hence from here on the sky is the limit”, he said.

His opposite number Raphael Braithwaite was smiling for the first time in the competition.

“I am rather proud of the way our team went out there and demonstrated that they can really play. Our offence really took it to them and dominated. The defense was also good as we got in some very important blocks. Definitely I am pleased that we are going forward to play in the semis. I think this is the furthest we have reached in a long while”, he reported.

Grenada goes on to meet St. Martin in the first semifinals while St. Kitts/Nevis will decide on 5th place with St. Maarten.
