Game Day 1, Match 1

St. Lucia blows away the British Virgin Islands in three sets

With a chance to advance to the Pan American U20 cup next year at stake, St. Lucia easily defeated the British Virgin islands with a score of 25- 7, 25-10 and 25- 14. St. Lucia operated with ruthless efficiency, thanks in part to their serving and excellent team spirit. Middle blocker Tenayestlgni Joseph lead the way with nine (9) points and she ably assisted by Captain Chenoa Evans who pumped in five (5). Despite this team SLU made some minor errors which they were able to address.

Their opponents, team BVI seemed unable to withstand the “Lucia pressure”. In the first set they seemed unsure about themselves and consequently their passing and serving was erratic. However, as the game progressed they grew more confident in their ability as evidenced by the scores. Captain Shauliqua Fahie and Xiomara Malone lead the way with two (2) points each. As indicated by Captain Fahie better communication will be needed for the team to improve.

Both teams were of the view there is room for improvement by trying to remain focused for longer periods and increasing the communication level amongst team members. Mr. Joseph Clercent, St. Lucia’s coach indicated his team will do better as the tournament progresses. His counterpart Mr. Willis Potter of Tortola shared a similar sentiment and urged his team to play to their potential.

Game Day 1, Match 2

Antigua and Barbuda survives the heat of St. Eustatius

Team Antigua and Barbuda survived a jolt from host St. Eustatius in their first match of the ECVA U20 tournament, with a score line of 25- 19, 25-14 and 25-19. Realizing St. Eustatius was intent on booking their ticket to the Pan Am Cup, Antigua and Barbuda's captain Joseanne Lewis rallied her troupes to limit their progress. She scored a total of fourteen (14) points to lead her team home.

ST. Eustatius showed their zeal as they fought relentlessly to keep the games close. Unfortunately their limited offensive capability was unable to siphon the Wadadli spirit. Leading the attack for ST. Eustatius was Michaline Penijn with a total of five (5) points.

Coach Spanner of St. Eustatius felt his team needed to execute the game plan that has been practice for the past several months; "Our errors made the difference in the game". However, as the tournament progresses, the team will play better. Antigua's coach Roselyn Lewis was also confident her young charges will be more relaxed and play to their full potential. She simply concluded her remarks by saying "Antigua and Barbuda came, Antigua and Barbuda saw and Antigua and Barbuda will conquer".

Game Day 1, Match 3

St. Lucia dismantles Antigua and Barbuda in a lopsided affair

The much anticipated clash between regional volleyball juggernauts ST. Lucia and Antigua and Barbuda, fizzled into a lop sided affair, as the former decimated the latter with a score of 3:0 (25-8, 25- 16, 26-24). The enormous weight of the “Lucia pressure wobbled the legs of their opponent as they attacked and defended with efficiency. Leading the charge was Captain Chenoa Evans who scored thirteen (13) points; she was ably assisted by effervescent Tenayestigni Joseph who scored twelve (12) points.

Antigua and Barbuda seemed befuddled and was unable to answer the many questions posed by the “Lucian” attack. The team finally provided stout resistance in the third set but it was futile. The Wadadli spirit seemed crushed and nonresponsive, as team members lost the ebullience they displayed in the earlier game. Team captain Joseanne Lewis fought valiantly to keep her team relevant but it was to no avail. The leading scorer for Antigua and Barbuda was Captain Lewis who scored nine (9) points. Middle blocker Rayana Regis provided some much needed assistance with five (5) points.

Mr. Joseph Clercent, St. Lucia’s coach was pleased with his team’s effort but feels they can get better once they continue training. Captain Chenoa Evans felt the team had a good chemistry and they can only continue to improve. Coach Roselyn Lewis of Antigua and Barbuda found it difficult to motivate her team during the first and second set. They seemed unfocused and tired but this was a valuable for future events. Her team captain had a similar sentiment but expressed once the team is rested they will bounce back.

Game Day 1, Match 4

St. Eustatius steam rolled the British Virgin Islands in three sets

St. Eustatius flexed their muscle as they brushed aside the British Virgin Islands with a score of 3-0 (25- 12, 25-13, 25- 20). The highly partisan home crowd cheered loudly for the home team as they rolled over team British Virgin Islands. ST. Eustatius buoyant in confidence, passed well and capitalized on the errors of their opponents. The leading scorers for the home team of St. Eustatius were Michaline Penijn with nine (9) points and Chanel Schmidt with nine (9) points.

The British Virgin Islands seemed anchored as they were unable to generate any offense to thwart the advancement of ST. Eustatius. Unfortunately for the British Virgin Islands, they awoke too late from their slumber. However, they showed they have the skill to be a force to reckon with in the future. The leading scorer for the IVB was Xiomara Malone with seven (7) points.

Coach Spanner of team St. Eustatius was happy his team finally got over their nervousness and showed their true skill. He did note his team did not play as if they were afraid and communicated effectively with each other. His counterpart on the other hand felt his team needs to be more confident and limit the points they give to their opposition.
