U21 Women's Pan Am Cup grants two tickets to FIVB World Championship

LA PAZ, Baja California Sur, June 6, 2022.- The sixth edition of the U21 Women's Pan American Cup that kicks off on Tuesday in La Paz will grant two tickets for the 2023 age-group FIVB World Championship.

With ten competing teams, the two vacancies available at the qualifying tournament for the FIVB World Championship will automatically qualify two teams from the NORCECA Confederation and not of the South American Volleyball Confederations as only Argentina and Chile are taking part of the competition.

Marcelo Silva, Head Coach Argentina: "We've been preparing since April, our main goal here is to prepare for the South American qualifier to the World Championship in August. We are glad to be here, it's a great opportunity to measure ourselves against interesting opponents; and I'll evaluate my team".

Carolyn O'Dwyer, Head Coach Canada: "We had a larger group training in Canada for ten days leading up, so we had a little bit of a longer period than we had in the past which was nice. I think with the change of the age-group we were able to bring some older athletes, giving us some more experience and our expectations are definitely high of what we can do this week, we hope to make Canada proud".

Eduardo Guillaume, Head Coach Chile: "Getting back to compete is positive, in three years with this team we've only played five matches; we are really excited of being here, to have played several friendly matches against Mexico and on the eve of the competition. I've been working with this group of players for a long time, we have high expectations from them. They were born in 2004-2005. It will be a tough tournament because of the level of play, we want to qualify among the final four".

Henry Rodríguez, Head Coach Costa Rica: "It'll be interesting facing highly competitive teams. Our team is a U18 renovated squad, Central American champions, eight from that team and some others are U16. Our expectations are to improve, have good results and reach our U21 Central American Championship in July in good conditions to win the title".

Rogelio Andrés Goytizolo, Head Coach Cuba: "As all the teams here, we are aiming for a good competition; our goal is to play the title match. We don't know anything about our rivals, but our team has young athletes who desire a good outcome".

Cristian Cruz, Head Coach Dominican Republic: "We had a good base camp, almost eight months working with this new group. This team participated at the U18 World Championship by ranking due to the Pandemic. We share a group with Puerto Rico and Cuba; we know that four players from Puerto Rico competed in Worlds and about Cuba we have no information. We are confident to be playing for medals”.

Marvin Ulloa, Head Coach Honduras: “We just had access to our gymnasium in March. Half of the team was U19 and U20 Central American Champions and competed in last year’s senior Central American Championship. We are suffering the absence of two key players: Nathaly Pérez who is studying in the United States and our team captain Gabriela Gomez who has health issues. We made some internal adjustments, and we hope they understand each other well”.

Luis Alberto León, Head Coach Mexico: “The team is glad, motivated and anxious to begin to compete here in Mexico. This is a strong competition, eight teams from NORCECA fighting for two berths for the World Championship and our objective is one of those tickets”.

José Rivera, Head Coach Puerto Rico: “We renovated our squad for this event, this is the first international experience for 80% of the group and they have a better height, something we identified in the past world championship. The team is healthy and with good energy, excited to compete”.

Daniel Fisher, Head Coach United States: “We had a wonderful preparation, we were able to be with our senior team in Louisiana for the VNL, it was a nice opportunity to train in the morning and watch the matches at night and learn from them. We started seven days of training with 20 players and now we’re here with 12, we feel we have a strong team and excited to be here, we hope for the best”.

Copa Pan Am U21 Femenino otorga dos boletos al Campeonato Mundial FIVB

LA PAZ, Baja California Sur, 6 de junio de 2022.- La sexta edición de la Copa Panamericana U21 Femenina que arranca el martes en La Paz, otorgará dos boletos al Campeonato Mundial FIVB 2023 de la categoría.

Con diez equipos compitiendo, las dos vacantes disponibles en el evento clasificatorio al Campeonato Mundial FIVB clasificará automáticamente a dos equipos de la Confederación NORCECA y no de la Confederación Sudamericana puesto que únicamente toman parte de la competencia Argentina y Chile.

Marcelo Silva, Entrenador Argentina: “Venimos preparándonos desde abril, el objetivo principal acá es la preparación para la clasificación Sudamericana al Campeonato Mundial que se disputará en agosto. Estamos contentos de estar acá porque este es un muy buen torneo para medirnos con equipos interesantes; además vengo a evaluar al equipo”.

Carolyn O'Dwyer, Entrenadora Canadá: “Tuvimos un grupo más grande para entrenar en Canadá por diez días antes de venir, así que tuvimos un período más largo que en el pasado, lo que fue bueno. Creo que con el cambio de categoría pudimos incorporar atletas mayores, dándonos mayor experiencia y nuestras expectativas definitivamente son más altas de lo que podemos lograr esta semana, esperamos darle orgullo a Canadá”.

Eduardo Guillaume, Entrenador Chile: “Es muy positivo retomar la competencia, en tres años con este equipo tuvimos únicamente cinco partidos; estamos muy emocionados de estar acá, de haber jugado partidos amistosos con el equipo mexicano y estar a un día de arrancar la competencia. Con este grupo de jugadoras he estado trabajando desde hace mucho tiempo, tenemos altas expectativas de ellas, son nacidas 2004-2005. Será un torneo duro por el nivel de los equipos que están acá, pero tenemos grandes ilusiones de clasificar entre los cuatro equipos finales”.

Henry Rodríguez, Entrenador Costa Rica: “Será interesante enfrentar a equipos de alto nivel competitivo. Nuestro equipo es un conjunto U18 renovado, que quedó campeón centroamericano, ocho son de ese equipo y algunas son U16. La expectativa nuestra es foguearnos, obtener buenos resultados y llegar al centroamericano U21 en julio en buenas condiciones para coronarse campeones”.

Rogelio Andrés Goytizolo, Entrenador Cuba: “Como todos acá, venimos con el afán de tener una buena competencia; nosotros buscamos sobre todo alcanzar el juego por el título. No conocemos a nuestros rivales, en nuestro caso tenemos atletas muy jóvenes con muchos deseos de lograr un buen resultado”.

Daniel Fisher, Entrenador Estados Unidos: “Tuvimos una preparación maravillosa, pudimos estar con el equipo mayor en Luisiana para la VNL, fue una linda oportunidad de entrenar por la mañana y ver los juegos por la noche y aprender de ellas. Iniciamos siete días de entrenamiento con 20 jugadoras y acá estamos con 12, sentimos que el equipo es fuerte y está emocionado de estar acá, esperamos lo mejor”.

Marvin Ulloa, Entrenador Honduras: “Tuvimos acceso a nuestras instalaciones deportivas hasta marzo. La mitad del equipo es el que ha venido siendo campeón centroamericano desde la categoría U18 y U20 y que compitió en el campeonato mayor centroamericano el año pasado. Estamos con la ausencia de dos jugadoras claves: Nathaly Pérez por estar estudiando en Estados Unidos y nuestra capitana Gabriela Gómez por problemas de salud. Hicimos movimientos internos en el equipo y esperamos que puedan entenderse”.

Luis Alberto León, Entrenador México: “El equipo está contento, motivado y ansioso por iniciar la competencia acá en México. Es una competencia fuerte, ocho equipos de la zona de Norceca peleando por dos plazas al Campeonato Mundial y conseguir el boleto es nuestro objetivo”.

José Rivera, Entrenador Puerto Rico: “La plantilla la renovamos para este evento, para el 80% del grupo esta es su primera competencia internacional y tiene un poco más de tamaño en la malla, que fue de las cosas que pudimos identificar en el mundial pasado. El equipo se encuentra saludable y anímicamente se encuentran bien, emocionados por competir”.

Cristian Cruz, Entrenador República Dominicana: “Tuvimos una buena base de preparación, alrededor de ocho meses trabajando con el grupo que es nuevo. Este equipo participó en el Mundial U18 por ranking debido a la pandemia. En nuestro grupo está Puerto Rico y Cuba; de Puerto Rico sabemos con cuatro jugadoras del mundial y de Cuba desconocemos. Tenemos confianza de que jugaremos por las medallas”.
