Coaches optimistic ahead of Pan American Cup Final Six

Ahead of the third edition of the NORCECA Pan American Cup Men's Final Six Cup, September 19 to 24 at the Flair Airlines Hangar, in Edmonton, Canada, the teams' head coaches spoke about their expectations for this tournament.

Manuel Espinosa, head coach of Cuba: "The expectations for this tournament are, first and foremost, the development of these athletes who, for some time now, have been able to show the talents we have in Cuba and this competition is a great opportunity to do so."

Gerardo de Jesus Sanchez, head coach of Puerto Rico: "We come with a young team, mainly from the U.S. colleges, and we want to give many Puerto Rican players the opportunity to develop for the future of the national team."

Jorge Azair, head coach of Mexico: "Principally, we are preparing for the Olympic Qualification Tournament, which is coming up in China. And we are trying some newer players on the Mexican team. Some players are already in Europe, but we have eight players here that will be with us at the Olympic qualifier."

Dan Lewis, head coach of Canada: "It's an interesting tournament because most teams are different combinations, so there are a lot of new faces out there and in that sense you don't have a ton of time to prepare. There is going to be a lot of adaptation during each game, so it's a heavy cognitive load for the guys. ... This is half of our Next Gen and half of the U21 squads, so even our guys have not played together as a team that much. It makes it interesting, but of course, as soon as the whistle blows and the balls start flying, we are going to want to win."

Alexander Gutierrez, head coach of Dominican Republic: "We have brought a very young team here that are looking for more experience. We've worked day after day to improve our level, but this tournament for us is about getting experience more than results. We have six players who are under 20 years old and several U23 players. Our senior team is preparing for the Pan American Games."

Andy Read, head coach of USA, "We're looking forward to this NORCECA tournament. We've brought a mix of younger guys and some of our older guys. I think it will be a great opportunity for some of the rising stars of NORCECA to shine, and hopefully for USA to play a great tournament."

Entrenadores optimistas antes de la Final del Panamericano de Voleibol

Antes de que inicie la tercera edición del Copa Panamericana NORCECA de Voleibol Masculino Final Six, que se llevará a cabo del 19 al 24 de septiembre en el Hangar de Flair Airlines, en Edmonton, Canadá, los entrenadores de los equipos hablaron sobre sus expectativas para este torneo.

Manuel Espinosa, entrenador de Cuba: “Las expectativas para este torneo son, en primer lugar, el desarrollo de estos atletas que, desde hace algún tiempo, han podido mostrar el talento que tenemos en Cuba. Esta competencia es una gran oportunidad para hacerlo”.

Gerardo de Jesús Sánchez, entrenador de Puerto Rico: “Venimos con un equipo joven, principalmente de las universidades de Estados Unidos, y queremos darles la oportunidad a muchos jugadores puertorriqueños de desarrollarse para el futuro del equipo nacional”.

Jorge Azair, entrenador de México: “Principalmente, nos estamos preparando para el Torneo de Clasificación Olímpica, que se acerca en China. Estamos probando a algunos jugadores más nuevos en el equipo mexicano. Algunos jugadores ya están en Europa, pero tenemos ocho jugadores aquí que estarán con nosotros en el clasificatorio olímpico”.

Dan Lewis, entrenador de Canadá: “Es un torneo interesante porque la mayoría de los equipos son combinaciones diferentes, así que hay muchas caras nuevas en el equipo. En ese sentido, no tenemos mucho tiempo para prepararnos. Habrá mucha adaptación durante cada juego, así que es una carga cognitiva intensa para los chicos... Este es la mitad de nuestro equipo Next Gen y la mitad de los equipos Sub-21, así que ni siquiera nuestros chicos han jugado juntos como equipo en gran medida. Lo hace interesante, pero, por supuesto, en cuanto suene el silbato y los balones empiecen a volar, vamos a querer ganar”.

Alexander Gutiérrez, entrenador de República Dominicana: “Hemos traído un equipo muy joven que busca más experiencia. Hemos trabajado día tras día para mejorar nuestro nivel, pero este torneo es más acerca de ganar experiencia que de lograr resultados específicos. Tenemos seis jugadores que tienen menos de 20 años y varios jugadores Sub-23. Nuestro equipo mayor se está preparando para los Juegos Panamericanos”.

Andy Read, entrenador de Estados Unidos: “Esperamos con interés este torneo NORCECA. Hemos traído una mezcla de jugadores jóvenes y algunos de nuestros jugadores más experimentados. Creo que será una gran oportunidad para que algunas de las estrellas emergentes de NORCECA brillen y, con suerte, para que Estados Unidos juegue un gran torneo”.
