Coaches Share Their Tournament Expectations Ahead of NORCECA Final Six

PONCE, Puerto Rico, October 5th, 2025.- The Juan 'Pachín' Vicéns Auditorium is ready to host the fifth edition of the NORCECA Men's Final Six, as head coaches from Canada, the Dominican Republic, Mexico, Puerto Rico, Suriname, and the United States share their expectations for the event, which runs from October 6th to 12th.

Renato Soares, Mexico's Head Coach: "For this event, we couldn't bring our complete team, as some athletes are currently with their clubs. However, we have a core group from the main squad who have already gained experience with the national team this year, along with the return of a couple of athletes who had been absent for some time. We're here to earn FIVB ranking points, which are highly beneficial for us and our Olympic Games project. We've brought a strong team to compete for the top spots, that remains our primary objective.

Jamille Torres, Puerto Rico's Head Coach: "We're coming with a roster very similar to the one we used in the Pan American Cup. We have two players who are out due to injury, and part of the process we had this summer was to try out young players. We have very high expectations and we're coming to win. Playing in Puerto Rico creates a little more pressure for us because we have to compete in front of our fans in the stands. We don't get many opportunities to play at home, so when we come here, we want to give the best performance possible, without detracting from our main goals: to continue growing and improving for the future."

Karch Kiraly, United States' Coach: "We are excited to have put together a young team for this tournament. Almost all of the guys are enrolled in college and are student-athletes competing in the American College Volleyball season. It's a really fun group. Although we didn't have much time to practice together, we look forward to the challenge of seeing how strong a team we can build in just a few days. Our main objective, for them and for all of us, is to continue learning and improving, and hopefully we'll be better at the end of the tournament than we are today. "

José Gutiérrez, Dominican Republic's Coach: "At the beginning of the year, we had hoped to have a full roster for this tournament, but for reasons beyond our control, that wasn't possible. We have a group of experienced players, though they haven't had the opportunity to practice together. As the tournament progresses, we'll be adjusting a few things. We hope to take it step by step and improve with each match. To the extent possible, we'll aim to advance with this group, and that's exactly what we're going to try to do: go out, deliver the best performance we can within our limitations, and keep our eyes on 2026 and the Central American Games."

Grant Wilson, Canada's Head Coach: "Our team is made up of university players who are excited to be here. We're a young and relatively inexperienced group, but we're looking forward to participating in this event. We've been training since September 1st and also played an exhibition match last weekend, so we're glad we had the opportunity to practice and play together. Our main goal is to enjoy this experience and continue improving. We're looking forward to competing against some of the best teams from NORCECA, seeing how this challenges us as a group, and helps us grow."

Suriname is expected to arrive later.

The NORCECA Men's Final Six tournament awards world ranking points to teams not competing in the Volleyball Nations League (VNL) and serves as part of the qualification process for the Central American and Caribbean Games, awarding continental ranking points to all participating teams.

Entrenadores comparten sus expectativas del torneo antes del NORCECA Final Six masculino

PONCE, Puerto Rico, 5 de octubre de 2025.- El Auditorio Juan 'Pachín' Vicéns está listo para albergar la quinta edición del NORCECA Final Six Masculino. Entrenadores de Canadá, República Dominicana, México, Puerto Rico, Surinam y Estados Unidos comparten sus expectativas para el evento, que se realizará del 6 al 12 de octubre.

Renato Soares, entrenador de México: "Para este evento, no pudimos traer a nuestro equipo completo, ya que algunos atletas se encuentran actualmente con sus clubes. Sin embargo, contamos con un grupo base del equipo principal que ya ha adquirido experiencia con la selección nacional este año, junto con el regreso de un par de atletas que habían estado ausentes durante algún tiempo. Estamos aquí para sumar puntos en el ranking de la FIVB, lo cual es muy beneficioso para nosotros y nuestro proyecto olímpico. Hemos traído un equipo fuerte para competir por los primeros puestos, que sigue siendo nuestro principal objetivo".

Jamille Torres, entrenadora de Puerto Rico: "Venimos con una plantilla muy similar a la que usamos en la Copa Panamericana. Tenemos dos jugadores que están de baja por lesión, y parte del proceso que tuvimos este verano fue probar a jugadores jóvenes. Tenemos expectativas muy altas y venimos a ganar. Jugar en Puerto Rico nos genera un poco más de presión porque tenemos que competir frente a nuestra fanaticada en las gradas". No tenemos muchas oportunidades de jugar en casa, así que cuando venimos aquí, queremos dar el mejor rendimiento posible, sin desviarnos de nuestro objetivo principal: seguir creciendo y mejorando para el futuro.

Karch Kiraly, entrenador de Estados Unidos: "Estamos emocionados de haber formado un equipo joven para este torneo. Casi todos los chicos juegan en las universidades y son estudiantes-atletas que compiten en la temporada de voleibol universitario estadounidense. Es un grupo muy divertido. Aunque no tuvimos mucho tiempo para practicar juntos, esperamos con ansias el desafío de ver qué tan fuerte podemos llegar a ser como equipo en estos días de competencia.

Nuestro principal objetivo, para ellos y para todos nosotros, es seguir aprendiendo y mejorando, y ojalá seamos mejores al final del torneo de lo que somos hoy".

José Gutiérrez, entrenador de República Dominicana: "A principios de año, esperábamos tener un equipo completo para este torneo, pero por razones ajenas a nuestra voluntad, no fue posible. Contamos con un grupo de jugadores experimentados, aunque no han tenido la oportunidad de entrenar juntos. A medida que avance el torneo, iremos ajustando algunos aspectos. Esperamos ir paso a paso y mejorar con cada partido. En la medida de lo posible, nuestro objetivo será avanzar con este grupo, y eso es precisamente lo que intentaremos hacer: salir, ofrecer el mejor rendimiento posible dentro de nuestras limitaciones y con la vista puesta en 2026 y los Juegos Centroamericanos."

Grant Wilson, entrenador de Canadá: "Nuestro equipo está formado por jugadores universitarios que están entusiasmados de estar aquí. Somos un grupo joven y relativamente inexperto, pero estamos muy contentos de participar en este evento. Hemos estado entrenando desde el 1 de septiembre y también jugamos un partido de exhibición el fin de semana pasado, así que nos alegra haber tenido la oportunidad de entrenar y jugar juntos. Nuestro principal objetivo es disfrutar de esta experiencia y seguir mejorando. Tenemos muchas ganas de competir contra algunos de los mejores equipos de la NORCECA, ver cómo esto nos desafía como grupo y nos ayuda a crecer".

Se espera que Surinam llegue más tarde.

El torneo NORCECA Final Six Masculino otorga puntos de clasificación mundial a equipos que no compiten en la Liga de Naciones de Voleibol (VNL), y sirve como parte del proceso de clasificación para los Juegos Centroamericanos y del Caribe, otorgando puntos de clasificación continental a todos los equipos participantes.
