Intense Battle Begins for a Spot at the 2026 FIVB U17 Girls' World Championship

SAN JOSÉ, Costa Rica, November 3, 2025. – Eight national teams are set to clash in San José, Costa Rica, from November 4 to 9, at the NORCECA U17 Girls' Continental Championship, where the dream of qualifying for the 2026 FIVB U17 Girls' World Championship is on the line.

Coaches and players alike are gearing up for what promises to be a highly competitive week of volleyball, as the region's rising stars fight to secure their place on the world stage.

At least one berth to the FIVB 2026 World Championship will go to the NORCECA champion. The FIVB will confirm at a later date the total number of participating teams and, consequently, the number of qualification spots available to NORCECA.

Sam Lam, Head Coach of Canada: "We had our first practice together this morning. The players loved the environment in the gym when we walked in. As far as expectations this week, we just want to get better every day. It's the first time the players have worn the Canada flag on their uniforms, and we are looking for them to grow throughout the tournament. There's going to be great competition, and we are looking forward to it".

Kareem Richards, Head Coach of Costa Rica: "There are no words to describe the excitement we feel having an event of this magnitude in our country. The team is highly motivated and well-prepared. We know all the teams are also well-prepared since this tournament grants spots to the World Championship. We see it as a great opportunity to deliver a pleasant surprise. Our expectation is to finish as high as possible in the rankings."

Carina Menes, Head Coach of Cuba: "The team has been preparing for two months. We haven't had any friendly matches, but we're going to fight to finish among the top three teams in the group to advance to the next round. It won't be an easy task because it's a very strong group, but the players are eager to win matches. Their confidence level is very high."

Marcelo Cezarano, Head Coach of the Dominican Republic: "This is the first competition for eleven players, they've never played internationally and are very eager. The team is doing well and training hard. We had difficulties training due to Hurricane Melisa, so each player worked from home. We lost a very important middle blocker to injury, but we're moving forward. We're aiming to qualify for the World Championship. Hopefully, everything goes well, especially for the players so they can gain valuable playing experience."

Migdael Ruiz Juárez, Head Coach of Mexico: "We carry a great responsibility as defending champions of the event. The team is well-prepared, with new faces and a lot of desire, though also some nervousness. It's my first event as head coach, and I'm very excited."

Ernesto Ricolt Vega, Head Coach of Puerto Rico: “Our goal is to earn a spot at the World Championship. We’ve worked as much as possible, and the team has trained hard. We hope to do a good job.”

Claudius Straal, Head Coach of Suriname: “We’re feeling confident. We just came from winning the CAZOVA Under-17 Championship. We hope our performance can take us to the next round of the event. We are looking to qualify for the World Championship which will be the first time a team from Suriname has done so”.

Danielle Scott, Head Coach of United States: “We had a week of training in Colorado Springs, and we are very excited about this competition. Being our first Under-17 NORCECA, we are just happy to compete with some other really great national teams, and we hope to earn some points towards the World Championship. Our goal is always to win, but also to have a good competition and represent our country. We have amazing young girls and just giving them the experience of what it means to play international is a great steppingstone”.

Inicia intensa batalla por un boleto al Campeonato Mundial FIVB U17 Femenino 2026

SAN JOSÉ, Costa Rica, 3 de noviembre de 2025. – Ocho selecciones nacionales están listas para enfrentarse en San José, Costa Rica, del 4 al 9 de noviembre, en el Campeonato Continental NORCECA U17 Femenino, donde estará en juego el sueño de clasificar al Campeonato Mundial FIVB U17 Femenino 2026.

Entrenadores y jugadoras se preparan para una semana de competencia de alto nivel, en la que las jóvenes promesas del voleibol regional buscarán demostrar su talento y asegurar su lugar en el escenario mundial.

Al menos un cupo al Campeonato Mundial 2026 de la FIVB, a celebrarse en Chile, será otorgado al campeón de NORCECA. La FIVB confirmará en una fecha posterior el número total de equipos participantes y, por consiguiente, la cantidad de plazas asignadas a la Confederación NORCECA.

Sandra Lam, Entrenadora de Canadá: “Tuvimos nuestra primera práctica juntas esta mañana. A las jugadoras les encantó el ambiente en el gimnasio cuando entramos. En cuanto a las expectativas para esta semana, solo queremos mejorar cada día. Es la primera vez que las jugadoras visten el uniforme con la bandera de Canadá, y esperamos que crezcan a lo largo del torneo. Habrá una gran competencia, y estamos deseando que comience”.

Kareem Richards, Entrenador de Costa Rica: “No hay palabras para describir la emoción que sentimos al tener un evento de esta magnitud en nuestro país. El equipo está muy motivado. Se ha preparado bien. Sabemos que todos los equipos también llegan bien preparados porque otorga porque otorga cupos al mundial. Lo vemos como una gran oportunidad de dar una buena sorpresa. Tenemos la expectativa de quedar lo más alto posible en el ranking”.

Carina Menes, Entrenadora de Cuba: “El equipo lleva dos meses de preparación. No hemos tenido juegos de preparación, pero vamos a luchar por quedar entre los primeros tres lugares del grupo para avanzar a la siguiente ronda. No será una tarea fácil porque es un grupo muy fuerte, pero las jugadoras tienen muchos deseos de ganar partidos. Traen el autoestima bien alta”.

Marcelo Cezarano, Entrenador República Dominicana: “Esta es la primera competencia de once jugadoras, nunca han jugado a nivel internacional y están ansiosas. El equipo está muy bien, se está entrenando fuerte. Tuvimos problemas para entrenar por el Huracán Melisa y cada jugadora trabajó desde su casa. Perdimos una jugadora muy importante (jugadora central) por una lesión, pero seguimos adelante. Vamos a buscar la clasificación para el mundial. Ojalá que todo salga bien, principalmente para ellas para que ganen madurez de juego”.

Migdael Ruiz Juárez, Entrenadora de México: “Traemos una gran responsabilidad como campeonas defensoras del evento. El equipo viene bien preparado, con gente nueva y con muchas ganas, además de nerviosismo. Es mi primer evento como entrenadora principal en un evento y estoy muy emocionada”.

Ernesto Ricolt Vega, Entrenador de Puerto Rico: “Nuestro objetivo es obtener una plaza al mundial. Hemos trabajado en la medida que hemos podido. Se ha trabajado fuerte y esperamos hacer un buen trabajo”.

Claudius Straal, Entrenador de Surinam: “Nos sentimos confiados. Venimos de ganar el Campeonato CAZOVA Sub-17. Esperamos que nuestro desempeño nos lleve a la siguiente ronda del evento. Buscamos clasificarnos al Campeonato Mundial, lo que sería la primera vez que un equipo de Surinam lo logra”.

Danielle Scott, Entrenadora de Estados Unidos: “Tuvimos una semana de entrenamiento en Colorado Springs y estamos muy emocionados por esta competencia. Siendo nuestro primer NORCECA Sub-17, estamos felices de competir con otros grandes equipos nacionales y esperamos sumar puntos hacia el Campeonato Mundial. Nuestro objetivo siempre es ganar, pero también tener una buena competencia y representar a nuestro país. Tenemos chicas jóvenes increíbles, y brindarles la experiencia de lo que significa jugar a nivel internacional es un gran paso adelante.”
