Canada beats Costa Rica at home

June 24, 2025: Canada overcame some first-match jitters to defeat Costa Rica in straight sets today at the U19 Girls' Pan American Cup in Kingston, Ontario, Canada.

The home team won 3-0 (25-19, 28-26, 25-20).

"It was a good win in front of our home crowd," said Canada's head coach Gina Schmidt. "I think something we'll talk about for tomorrow is about how we can reduce the amount of unforced errors on our side, but for a first game we got a lot of players into the game, so that was important. We got to try different people getting used to playing beside each other, so this was a great first game to get those first-game jitters out of the way and we are looking to keep building for the next game."

Attack points favored Canada 52-22, and they had nine aces compared with Costa Rica's six. Costa Rica led in blocking points 7-4 and scored more points from Canada's errors 30-13.

Canadian outside hitter Sofia Zabjek led both teams in points with 16 including 14 off the attack. She was followed by Sydney Bell with 10, and Maya Bukovcan with eight. Bukovcan also led the team in blocks with two.

Maria del Sol Venegas Grant and Mariela Navarro scored eight points apiece as top scorers for the Costa Rican side.

Canada is back in Group B action tomorrow to face off against Dominican Republic at 6:30 pm ET.

The U19 Pan Am Cup is the final tournament before the team's head to Croatia and Serbia next month to face off in the FIVB Girls' U19 World Championship 2025.

USA earns first win over Venezuela at U19 tournament

June 24, 2025: Venezuela's best efforts were not able to match USA's size and power today at U19 Girls' Pan American Cup in Kingston, Ontario, Canada, ending with a 0-3 (9-25, 23-25, 21-25) score.

USA dominated the first set, but Venezuela was able to make it a closer game in the second and third sets, even leading by up to four points at one point. But the young USA squad battled back to win.

“For all these players, it’s their first time ever putting on a USA uniform and that causes emotions. I’m proud of their ability to get over the emotion and play good volleyball,” said USA head coach Jamie Morrison. “This is an amazing experience for these girls. We talked about staying true to who it is they are and who we want to be as competitors. You need to pressure test that as much as you can and hats off to Venezuela for putting the pressure on us.”

USA dominated in attack points (41-22), blocking (14-4) and had more aces (8-5). Venezuela gained more points from opponent errors 22-12.

Megan Hodges (8 attack points, 5 blocks) and Shayla Rautenberg (6 attack points, 3 blocks and 4 aces) led USA in scoring with 13 points apiece. Leidymar Colina led the Venezuelan team with 13 points.

The tournament is held at the Queen’s University Athletic and Recreation Centre in Kingston and continues until June 28.

Mexico sweeps Puerto Rico to kick off U19 Pan Am Cup

In the opening match of the U19 Girls’ Pan American Cup in Kingston, Ontario, Canada, Mexico swept Puerto Rico 3-0 (25-20, 25-20, 25-18).

Mexico’s team captain Isabella Ocampo said she was proud of the way her team worked together for the win: “I thought we came out swinging – we came out hard and aggressive. I feel like our teamwork is really what helped us get this win. Whenever we were stuck, we would help each other back up, get the point back and go on a good run.”

Mexico led in attack points (40-35) and out blocked its opponent 10-2. Service aces were equal at 3 each. Puerto Rico also made more errors (22-18) to Mexico’s advantage on the score sheet.

Naomi Cruz of Mexico led all scoring with 19 points (17 attack points and 2 blocks). Angélica Jazmin Torres Galvan and Brenda Sofia Esquivel Valdez, also of the winning side, scored 10 points each.

Pamela Agosto Serrano led scoring for the Puerto Rican team with 11 points.

The tournament is held at the Queen’s University Athletic and Recreation Centre in Kingston, and continues to June 28.
