Women's Volleyball Ready to Get Underway at Santo Domingo 2026

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic, August 1, 2026. – Eight national teams are set to begin their quest for the women's volleyball title at the Santo Domingo 2026 Central American and Caribbean Games, as the region's best squads prepare for six days of competition that promise high-level matches and valuable NORCECA Continental Ranking points.

Competition will run from August 2 to 7 at the Professor Ricardo Gioriver Arias Volleyball Palace. On the eve of the tournament, the head coaches shared their expectations, assessed the level of the field, and outlined the objectives their teams hope to achieve in Santo Domingo.

Head Coach of Colombia, Guilherme Schmitz Vieira: "We arrive highly motivated after competing in the South American Cup, where we earned qualification for the Olympic qualifying tournament for our zone in Rio de Janeiro. We know this will be a high-level competition with very strong opponents, so we will have to perform at our best in every match."

Head Coach of Costa Rica, Ciro Zoratti: "I took over as head coach in May, so we have had very limited time to prepare for this tournament. It has been a challenge because our national championship is still underway, with clubs training and competing every week. Fortunately, thanks to the Costa Rican Volleyball Federation, the league was paused last week, allowing us to train together for four consecutive days. We know the level of this tournament will be very high, and we are in a difficult pool. However, I have told the players that our focus must be on our performance rather than the results. For us, this tournament is not only an important competition but also a valuable experience for the athletes. It is another step in our development process and will help us prepare for upcoming events."

Head Coach of Cuba, Luizomar De Moura: "First of all, it is an honor to serve as the head coach of a national team like Cuba, a responsibility once held by some of the greatest figures in world volleyball, such as Eugenio George. I am very proud of that. We completed part of our preparation here in the Dominican Republic, and I would like to thank the country for welcoming us ahead of the tournament. I took over the team a year ago, and this is the first time I have had several weeks preparing for the group. We hope to achieve a good result in this competition."

Head Coach of the Dominican Republic, Marcos Kwiek: "We are very excited to play the Games at home. Our fans always give us tremendous support, and we have to know how to handle that pressure. We have learned that all the tickets have been sold out, which shows how eager people are to watch our players. We want to maintain the level of play we have been showing. We know we are one of the teams expected to contend for a medal, but every team comes here aiming for a place on the podium. In a short tournament like this, we cannot underestimate any opponent. We have to be prepared to face every challenge because everyone is here to compete. We finished the VNL playing well, we arrive in good form, we have maintained our work, and we hope to deliver a strong performance."

Head Coach of Mexico, Nicola Negro: "Our goal is to fight for a medal. We know it will not be easy because there are several very strong teams, so we expect a very open battle for the podium. We arrive in the middle of a very demanding season with numerous commitments. We began in June with the Final Four, now we are competing at the Central American and Caribbean Games, and afterward we will have four more major events."

Head Coach of Puerto Rico, Juan Carlos Núñez: "We are going to see a tournament of a very high level. There are several national teams with a real chance of winning a medal, which makes this an extremely demanding competition. For us, fighting for a medal is a great motivation, and we are approaching this challenge with great seriousness because, in addition to being the most important multi-sport event in our region, it also serves as excellent preparation for one of the year's most important tournaments: the NORCECA Senior Continental Championship, which serves as a qualifier for the FIVB Volleyball World Championship and the Olympic Qualification Tournament."

Head Coach of Trinidad and Tobago, Gideon Dickson: "We had a very good preparation cycle. We brought back some of our experienced athletes to blend them with our younger emerging talent. We hope to be competitive every time we step onto the court. We haven't competed at this level for some time, so this tournament marks a fresh start in our new cycle and an opportunity to earn the valuable points we need to move up in the NORCECA Continental Ranking."

José Vásquez, President of the Venezuelan Volleyball Federation: "Our preparation has included several stages. First, we competed in the South American Cup, and now we are looking forward to the Central American and Caribbean Games, which will provide excellent preparation for our next event, the South American Olympic Qualifying Tournament. We are in a rebuilding process, with a balanced roster made up of 80 percent young players from the new generation and 20 percent more experienced athletes. This is a team with great attitude and a strong desire to compete."

El Voleibol Femenino Está Listo para Iniciar en Santo Domingo 2026

SANTO DOMINGO, República Dominicana, 1 de agosto de 2026. – Ocho selecciones nacionales están listas para iniciar la búsqueda del título del torneo femenino de voleibol de los XXV Juegos Centroamericanos y del Caribe Santo Domingo 2026, con las mejores escuadras de la región preparadas para disputar seis días de intensa competencia que otorgarán, además de las medallas regionales, valiosos puntos para el Ranking Continental de NORCECA.

La competencia se llevará a cabo del 2 al 7 de agosto en el Palacio de Voleibol Profesor Ricardo Gioriver Arias. En la víspera del inicio del torneo, los entrenadores de los ocho equipos compartieron sus expectativas, evaluaron el nivel de la competencia y expusieron los objetivos que esperan alcanzar en Santo Domingo.

Guilherme Schmitz Vieira, Entrenador de Colombia: “Llegamos muy motivados tras nuestra participación en la Copa Sudamericana, donde obtuvimos la clasificación al torneo clasificatorio olímpico de la zona en Río de Janeiro. Sabemos que esta será una competencia de gran nivel, con rivales muy fuertes, por lo que tendremos que competir al máximo en cada encuentro.”

Ciro Zoratti, Entrenador de Costa Rica: “Asumí como entrenador en mayo, por lo que hemos tenido muy poco tiempo para preparar este torneo. Ha sido un desafío porque nuestro campeonato nacional aún está en marcha, con los clubes entrenando y compitiendo cada semana. Afortunadamente, gracias a la Federación Costarricense de Voleibol, la liga se suspendió la semana pasada, lo que nos permitió entrenar juntos durante cuatro días consecutivos. Sabemos que el nivel de este torneo será muy alto y que estamos en un grupo muy difícil. Sin embargo, les he dicho a las jugadoras que nuestro enfoque debe estar en nuestro rendimiento más que en los resultados. Para nosotros, este torneo no solo es una competencia importante, sino también una experiencia muy valiosa para las atletas. Es un paso más en nuestro proceso de desarrollo y nos ayudará a prepararnos para los próximos eventos.”

Luizomar De Moura, Entrenador de Cuba: “Antes que nada, es un honor ocupar el cargo de entrenador de una selección como Cuba, una responsabilidad que estuvo en manos de grandes referentes del voleibol mundial, como Eugenio George. Me siento muy orgulloso de ello. Realizamos parte de nuestra preparación aquí en República Dominicana, país al que agradezco por recibirnos antes del torneo. Asumí la dirección del equipo hace un año y esta es la primera vez que dispongo de varias semanas para preparar al grupo. Esperamos lograr un buen resultado en esta competencia.”

Marcos Kwiek, Entrenador de República Dominicana: “Estamos muy emocionados de jugar los Juegos en nuestra casa. El pueblo siempre nos apoya mucho y hay que saber manejar esa presión. Nos hemos enterado de que todas las entradas se han vendido; la gente quiere ver a sus jugadoras. Vamos a mantener nuestro nivel de juego. Sabemos que somos uno de los equipos candidatos a las medallas, pero todos vienen dispuestos a buscar un lugar en el podio. En un torneo corto como este no podemos descuidarnos de ningún rival. Tenemos que estar preparados para enfrentar cualquier dificultad, porque todos vienen a competir. Terminamos la VNL jugando bien, llegamos en buenas condiciones, mantuvimos el trabajo y esperamos hacer un buen papel.”

Nicola Negro, Entrenador de México: “Nuestra aspiración es luchar por una medalla. Sabemos que no será fácil, porque hay varios equipos muy fuertes, así que esperamos una disputa muy abierta por el podio. Llegamos en medio de una temporada muy intensa, con numerosos compromisos. Iniciamos en junio con el Final Four, ahora afrontamos los Juegos Centroamericanos y del Caribe y, posteriormente, tendremos otros cuatro eventos de gran importancia.”

Juan Carlos Núñez, Entrenador de Puerto Rico: “Vamos a ver un torneo de muy alto nivel. Hay varias selecciones con posibilidades de ganar una medalla, lo que lo convierte en una competencia muy exigente. Para nosotros, luchar por una presea es una gran motivación y asumimos este reto con mucha seriedad, porque además de ser el evento multideportivo más importante de nuestra región, representa una excelente preparación para uno de los torneos más importantes del año: el Campeonato Continental NORCECA Mayor, clasificatorio al Campeonato Mundial y al Torneo de Clasificación Olímpica.”

Gideon Dickson, Entrenador de Trinidad y Tobago: “Tuvimos un muy buen ciclo de preparación. Incorporamos nuevamente a algunas de nuestras jugadoras con experiencia para combinarlas con jóvenes talentos emergentes. Esperamos ser competitivos en cada partido. Hace algún tiempo que no competimos a este nivel y este torneo representa un nuevo comienzo en este ciclo para sumar los puntos necesarios que nos permitan ascender en el ranking de NORCECA. Sabemos que será una competencia muy exigente en la cancha.”

José Vásquez, presidente de la Federación Venezolana de Voleibol: “Nuestra preparación ha incluido varias etapas. Primero disputamos la Copa Sudamericana y ahora afrontamos los Juegos Centroamericanos y del Caribe, que serán una excelente preparación para nuestro próximo compromiso, el Torneo Clasificatorio Olímpico Sudamericano. Estamos en un proceso de renovación, con un equilibrio entre una nueva generación que representa el 80 % del equipo y un grupo de jugadoras con mayor experiencia. Es un equipo con mucha actitud y disposición para competir.”
