Men's Coaches Looking Forward to High-Level Tournament

MONCTON, Canada, September 10, 2026.- Eight teams are in Moncton, Canada, for the 2026 NORCECA Men's Continental Championship, where three berths to the 2027 FIVB Volleyball Men's World Cup in Poland will be at stake. The tournament will also determine the teams that advance to NORCECA's final qualification stage for the Los Angeles 2028 Olympic Games. Head coaches shared their comments in advance of the first day of competition, which begins Friday Sept. 11.

Curacao Head Coach Daal Henrich: "It's the first time at this level for a long time for our team. We saw many of these teams last month in Mexico, we know they are at a higher level than us, so we just have to play our game. ... Our goal is to play as well as possible and see how tight we can make the games.

It's always nice to play the home team in front of their crowd (Curacao plays host Canada on Friday). We are looking forward to that. "

USA Head Coach Karch Kiraly: "NORCECA came up with a creative solution for this situation for the Olympic qualifying phase. We are thrilled to be included in the Championship and included in phase one, as we already have spot in the Olympic Games. We look forward to playing great teams in the NORCECA zone like Canada and Cuba, it's a wonderful learning opportunity for us. We are also looking to earn the World Cup berth and play our best to finish out the 2026 season."

Canada's Head Coach Dan Lewis: "We have had five weeks of preparation, which is a good amount, but not a lot of friendlies. The most important thing in this first pool phase is to get accustomed to the new surroundings and then start to execute as a group on the court well enough to hopefully win the pool. That provides us with an extra day off (and going directly to the semifinals). Right now the guys are hyper-motivated and very focused. So we'll see how the tournament progresses."

Puerto Rico Head Coach Jamille Torres: "We know who we have to beat here and we're just looking forward to having a good tournament. We want to be in a place to get an Olympic spot and qualify for the World Cup. We've just competed at four tournaments before this, so we are really prepared. We gave the guys some time off after the Final Six, but we are ready."

Guatemala Head Coach Reider Lucas: "We are happy to be in this event. We should have a good competition because we've had the opportunity to play at a similar level during the year and we should have a good performance. We are aware that it's a very hard event, very important and as I said before, we are glad to be here."

Mexico head coach Carlos Schwanke: "The ambitions are the same for everybody here; to qualify first of all for the World Championship and after that try as hard as we can to be in the next Olympic Games. We have been working hard toward this goal and it's an important task for Mexico."

Dominican Republic Head Coach Jose Manon: “We’re here representing the Dominican Republic. We faced some visa issues with a few players, but we’ve brought a team ready to compete.”

Cuba: not available for preliminary meeting.

Entrenadores esperan con entusiasmo un torneo de alto nivel

MONCTON, Canadá, 18 de septiembre de 2026.- Ocho equipos se encuentran en Moncton, Canadá, para disputar el Campeonato Continental NORCECA Mayor Masculino 2026, donde estarán en juego tres plazas para la Copa Mundial de Voleibol Masculino FIVB 2027 en Polonia. El torneo también determinará los equipos que avanzarán a la fase final de clasificación de NORCECA para los Juegos Olímpicos de Los Ángeles 2028.

Los entrenadores compartieron sus comentarios previo a la primera jornada de competencia, que comenzará el viernes 11 de septiembre.

Entrenador de Curazao, Daal Henrich: “Es la primera vez en mucho tiempo que nuestro equipo compite a este nivel. Vimos a muchos de estos equipos el mes pasado en México, sabemos que están a un nivel más alto que nosotros, así que simplemente tenemos que hacer nuestro juego. ... Nuestro objetivo es jugar lo mejor posible y ver qué tan cerrados podemos hacer los partidos.

Siempre es agradable enfrentar al equipo local frente a su afición (Curazao enfrenta al anfitrión Canadá el viernes). Estamos entusiasmados por ese partido”.

Entrenador de Estados Unidos, Karch Kiraly: “NORCECA encontró una solución creativa para esta situación en la fase de clasificación olímpica. Estamos encantados de estar incluidos en el Campeonato y en la primera fase, ya que nosotros ya tenemos un lugar en los Juegos Olímpicos. Esperamos con entusiasmo enfrentar a grandes equipos de la zona NORCECA como Canadá y Cuba; es una excelente oportunidad de aprendizaje para nosotros. También buscamos conseguir la plaza para la Copa Mundial y jugar de la mejor manera posible para cerrar la temporada 2026”.

Entrenador de Canadá, Dan Lewis: “Hemos tenido cinco semanas de preparación, que es una buena cantidad de tiempo, aunque no hemos disputado muchos partidos amistosos. Lo más importante en esta primera fase de grupos es acostumbrarnos al nuevo entorno y luego comenzar a ejecutar como grupo en la cancha lo suficientemente bien como para, esperamos, ganar el grupo. Eso nos daría un día adicional de descanso (y el pase directo a las semifinales). En este momento los muchachos están sumamente motivados y muy concentrados. Veremos cómo avanza el torneo”.

Entrenador de Puerto Rico, Jamille Torres: “Sabemos a quiénes tenemos que vencer aquí y simplemente esperamos tener un buen torneo. Queremos estar en posición de conseguir una plaza olímpica y clasificar a la Copa Mundial. Hemos competido en cuatro torneos antes de este, así que estamos realmente preparados. Les dimos a los muchachos un tiempo de descanso después del Final Six, pero estamos listos”.

Entrenador de Guatemala, Reider Lucas: “Estamos contentos de estar en este evento. Deberíamos tener una buena competencia porque hemos tenido la oportunidad de jugar a un nivel similar durante el año y deberíamos tener un buen desempeño. Somos conscientes de que es un evento muy difícil, muy importante y, como dije antes, estamos contentos de estar aquí”.

Entrenador de México, Carlos Schwanke: “Las aspiraciones son las mismas para todos aquí: primero clasificar al Campeonato Mundial y después hacer todo lo posible por estar en los próximos Juegos Olímpicos. Hemos estado trabajando duro para alcanzar este objetivo y es una tarea importante para México”.

Entrenador de República Dominicana, José Manón: “Estamos aquí representando a República Dominicana. Tuvimos algunos problemas de visado con algunos jugadores, pero hemos traído un equipo listo para competir”.
