Cuba clinches Olympic spot with win over Canada

MONCTON, Canada, September 19, 2026. – Cuba is headed to the Los Angeles 2028 Olympic Games after defeating Canada Saturday at the NORCECA Olympic men's qualification tournament.

Cuba won 3-1 (25-21, 25-23, 23-25, 25-22) to earn the continental spot at the Games, where they will join host United States, Asian champion Japan and nine other countries.

After a somewhat comfortable win in the first set, Cuba led by as much as five in the second before Canada charged back to tie it 22-22. But the Cubans took three of the final four points, with Marlon Yant providing two kills including the winner. Canada continued to battle, taking the third set in front of the home crowd at the Avenir Centre in Moncton. The fourth set was another back-and-forth affair, with Canada tying it 21-21 on Stephen Maar's kill, but Cuba came up with four of the next five points to win.

The Cuban players and staff flooded the court with hugs of celebration and tears of joy, then posed for a photo with a giant ticket to LA 2028.

Cuba had the advantage in attacks (62-57) and aces (9-3), while Canada held the edge in blocks (8-6).

Yant was the top scorer of the match with 25, followed by his teammate Miguel Lopez with 22, including a match-high three blocks. Alejandro Gonzalez added 14, with Gonzalez and Yant tying for the most aces with three each. Robertlandy Simon chipped in nine points.

Maar led the way for Canada with 22 points and Eric Loeppky had 14. Canadian libero Landon Currie was the match's best digger with seven.

Jesús Cruz López, Cuba coach: "This is the best sensation in the world to have an Olympic Games. We didn't have the last Olympics, now we have the ticket for Los Angeles."

Robertlandy Simon, Cuban player: "It's amazing because it's been a lot of years we've tried for this. I'm really happy for me and for my team. Everybody knows how far we've come through difficult times, but we are here with a positive mentality and we did everything to make the Olympic Games. We are really happy and this is a fantastic moment right now."

Dan Lewis, Canada coach: "I was really proud of the guys. Cuba played well, we played well, there were many ties and changes in this game, just that last moment we needed one more wave. We're not sure exactly all the lessons that we're going to get from this moment. They're going to come and we need to reflect as individuals and as a team. We're going to all have lessons that we learn from this. Then it's going to have to be some big decisions. ... I have big, big faith in this entire team. There are 14 guys that can play at world-class level tonight here and there's more waiting. We just have to figure out what is the team solution to rise through this little moment. We're right there, we have to make one more wave, one more step."

Cuba asegura su clasificación olímpica con victoria sobre Canadá

MONCTON, Canadá, 19 de septiembre de 2026.- Cuba estará en los Juegos Olímpicos de Los Ángeles 2028 tras derrotar este sábado a Canadá en el Clasificatorio Olímpico Masculino de NORCECA.

Cuba se impuso 3-1 (25-21, 25-23, 23-25, 25-22) para obtener el boleto continental a los Juegos Olímpicos, donde se unirá al anfitrión Estados Unidos, al campeón asiático Japón y a otros nueve países.

Después de ganar el primer set con relativa comodidad, Cuba llegó a tener una ventaja de cinco puntos en el segundo, antes de que Canadá reaccionara para empatar 22-22. Sin embargo, los cubanos consiguieron tres de los últimos cuatro puntos, con dos ataques efectivos de Marlon Yant, incluido el que cerró el set. Canadá continuó luchando y se llevó el tercer set ante su público en el Avenir Centre de Moncton. El cuarto también fue muy disputado, con Canadá empatando 21-21 mediante un ataque de Stephen Maar, pero Cuba consiguió cuatro de los siguientes cinco puntos para asegurar la victoria.

Los jugadores y el cuerpo técnico cubano invadieron la cancha entre abrazos de celebración y lágrimas de alegría, para luego posar para una fotografía con un boleto gigante a Los Ángeles 2028.

Cuba tuvo ventaja en puntos de ataque (62-57) y servicios directos (9-3), mientras que Canadá dominó en bloqueos (8-6).

Yant fue el máximo anotador del encuentro con 25 puntos, seguido por su compañero Miguel Ángel López con 22, incluidos tres bloqueos, la mayor cantidad del partido. Alejandro González aportó 14 puntos, mientras que González y Yant compartieron el liderato en servicios directos con tres cada uno. Robertlandy Simón contribuyó con nueve puntos.

Maar encabezó la ofensiva canadiense con 22 puntos y Eric Loeppky sumó 14. El líbero canadiense Landon Currie fue el mejor en defensa de campo del encuentro con siete defensas.

Jesús Cruz López, entrenador de Cuba: “Esta es la mejor sensación del mundo, estar en unos Juegos Olímpicos. No estuvimos en los últimos Juegos Olímpicos y ahora tenemos el boleto para Los Ángeles”.

Robertlandy Simón, jugador de Cuba: “Es increíble porque llevamos muchos años intentando conseguirlo. Estoy muy feliz por mí y por mi equipo. Todos saben las dificultades que hemos atravesado para llegar hasta aquí, pero estamos aquí con una mentalidad positiva e hicimos todo lo necesario para llegar a los Juegos Olímpicos. Estamos muy felices y este es un momento fantástico”.

Dan Lewis, entrenador de Canadá: “Estoy muy orgulloso de los muchachos. Cuba jugó bien, nosotros jugamos bien, hubo muchos empates y cambios de ventaja en este partido, pero en ese último momento necesitábamos un esfuerzo más. Todavía no sabemos exactamente todas las lecciones que vamos a sacar de este momento. Llegarán y necesitamos reflexionar tanto individualmente como en equipo. Todos tendremos lecciones que aprender de esto. Después tendremos que tomar algunas decisiones importantes. Tengo muchísima confianza en todo este equipo. Hay 14 jugadores que pueden competir a nivel mundial aquí esta noche y hay más esperando su oportunidad. Solo tenemos que encontrar la solución como equipo para superar este momento. Estamos muy cerca, tenemos que dar un último impulso, un paso más”.

Mexico captures third place in Olympic qualification tourney

MONCTON, Canada, September 19, 2026. – Mexico topped Dominican Republic in straight sets Saturday to take the bronze medal in the NORCECA Olympic qualification tournament.

Mexico beat the upstart Dominicans 3-0 (25-17, 25-22, 25-23) to wrap up their time at the Avenir Centre in Moncton, Canada.

Dominican Republic had surprised the Mexicans with an upset win in Monday's continental championship quarter-final but could not repeat the feat despite leading briefly in the second set and for much of the third.

Mexico overpowered them in attacks (50-38) and blocks (10-3), while each team had two aces. Franky Milantony led the Mexicans in scoring with 17 points while Diego González added 14. Juan Garcia had a match-high five blocks.

Hector Cruz paced the Dominican attack with 13 points, while Adrian Figueroa was close behind with 12. Enger Miguel Mieses was the top digger with 10 for Dominican Republic.

Carlos Schwanke, Mexico coach: "Well deserved for the team, we came back today to the level we were supposed to play the first match against the Dominican Republic. Today was great, we earned ranking points to put us in a good position and hopefully world championships next year."

Franky Hernández Milantony, player: "First of all, I think we were more than ready for this game. It was a kind of rematch we were looking for, so our expectations were high and the result was good."

On Moncton as host city: "It was beautiful. The people were wonderful, they're such good people and I love that (the Avenir Centre) is so full and so big."

México obtiene el tercer lugar en el Clasificatorio Olímpico

MONCTON, Canadá, 19 de septiembre de 2026.- México superó este sábado a República Dominicana en sets corridos para quedarse con la medalla de bronce del Clasificatorio Olímpico de NORCECA.

México venció a los dominicanos 3-0 (25-17, 25-22, 25-23) para cerrar su participación en el Avenir Centre de Moncton, Canadá.

República Dominicana había sorprendido a México con una victoria en los cuartos de final del Campeonato Continental del lunes, pero no pudo repetir el resultado, a pesar de tomar brevemente la ventaja en el segundo set y mantenerse al frente durante buena parte del tercero.

México dominó en puntos de ataque (50-38) y bloqueo (10-3), mientras que ambos equipos registraron dos servicios directos. Franky Hernández Milantony encabezó la ofensiva mexicana con 17 puntos y Diego González aportó 14. Juan García fue el máximo bloqueador del encuentro con cinco puntos.

Héctor Cruz lideró el ataque dominicano con 13 puntos, seguido de cerca por Adrián Figueroa con 12. Enger Miguel Mieses fue el mejor en defensa de República Dominicana, con 10 defensas.

Carlos Schwanke, entrenador de México: "Muy merecido para el equipo. Hoy recuperamos el nivel con el que debimos haber jugado el primer partido contra República Dominicana. Hoy estuvimos muy bien, sumamos puntos para el ranking que nos colocan en una buena posición y, con suerte, podremos estar en el Campeonato Mundial el próximo año".

Franky Hernández Milantony, jugador de México: “Antes que nada, creo que estábamos más que preparados para este partido. Era una especie de revancha que estábamos buscando, así que nuestras expectativas eran altas y el resultado fue bueno”.

Sobre Moncton como ciudad anfitriona: “Fue hermoso. La gente fue maravillosa, son personas muy amables y me encanta que el Avenir Centre sea tan grande y esté tan lleno”.
