Cuba on to Olympic qualification final with win over Dominican Republic

MONCTON, Canada, September 18, 2026. – Cuba will face Canada with a Los Angeles 2028 Olympic Games spot on the line after a NORCECA qualification semifinal win over Dominican Republic Friday.

Cuba beat the Dominicans 3-0 (32-30, 25-19, 25-15) at the Avenir Centre in Moncton, Canada, to advance to Saturday's 7 p.m. Atlantic Time final against the host country.

The underdog Dominicans continued to be the surprise of the week, and had six set points in the first set, but Cuba held them off to win.

Cuba held the major edge in attacks (51-35) and blocks (16-7), and also had one more ace (4-3) than Dominican Republic.

Cuba's captain Miguel Lopez – named second-best spiker of the week's continental championship – was the top scorer of the match with 23 points. Marlon Yant had 14 points, and Robertlandy Simon added 10 points for the Cubans. Alejandro Gonzalez and David Fiel chipped in eight each. Fiel had a match-high five blocks, while Lopez, Simon and Christian Thondike added three each. Thondike – best setter of the continental tournament – had seven points overall and 32 running sets.

Opposite Adrian Figueroa was the top-scoring Dominican with 16 points, 11 of which came in the first set. Moises Ortiz added 10, including four blocks.

Dominican Republic will have a bronze-medal rematch Saturday at 4:30 p.m. against Mexico, who they surprised with a win in their continental quarter-final matchup Monday.

Jesús Cruz López, Cuba's head coach: "It's the most important game in this tournament to fight for qualification for the Olympic Games tomorrow. We're very happy to get the victory today. We have to play very good volleyball to win tomorrow; with the Dominican Republic we had to fight the whole game, from the first set, which was very difficult. But in the end, we took the victory."

Alejandro González Rodríguez, Cuban opposite: "Dominican Republic did a good job in the first set, they came with a lot of emotion and were doing a good job. They did quite well but we did a better job to win the first set and the match."

Cuba avanza a la final del Clasificatorio Olímpico tras vencer a República Dominicana

MONCTON, Canadá, 18 de septiembre de 2026.- Cuba enfrentará a Canadá por un boleto a los Juegos Olímpicos de Los Ángeles 2028, tras vencer este viernes a República Dominicana en las semifinales del Clasificatorio Olímpico NORCECA.

Cuba se impuso 3-0 (32-30, 25-19, 25-15) en el Avenir Centre de Moncton, Canadá, y avanzó a la final del sábado frente al equipo anfitrión, programada para las 7:00 p. m., hora del Atlántico.

República Dominicana, que llegó al encuentro sin ser favorita, continuó sorprendiendo durante la semana y dispuso de seis puntos para ganar el primer set, pero Cuba resistió para llevárselo.

Cuba tuvo una amplia ventaja en puntos de ataque (51-35) y bloqueos (16-7), además de registrar un servicio directo más que República Dominicana (4-3).

El capitán cubano Miguel López, nombrado segundo mejor atacante del Campeonato Continental disputado esta semana, fue el máximo anotador del encuentro con 23 puntos. Marlon Yant sumó 14 y Robertlandy Simón aportó 10 para Cuba. Alejandro González y David Fiel contribuyeron con ocho puntos cada uno. Fiel registró cinco bloqueos, la mayor cantidad del partido, mientras que López, Simón y Christian Thondike consiguieron tres cada uno. Thondike, elegido mejor acomodador del Campeonato Continental, terminó con siete puntos y 32 acomodadas efectivas.

El opuesto Adrián Figueroa fue el máximo anotador de República Dominicana con 16 puntos, 11 de ellos en el primer set. Moisés Ortiz agregó 10, incluidos cuatro bloqueos. República Dominicana volverá a enfrentarse a México el sábado a las 4:30 p. m. en el partido por la medalla de bronce. Los dominicanos sorprendieron a los mexicanos con una victoria en los cuartos de final del Campeonato Continental, disputados el lunes.

Jesús Cruz López, entrenador de Cuba: "El partido de mañana es el más importante de este torneo, porque estaremos luchando por la clasificación a los Juegos Olímpicos. Estamos muy contentos de conseguir la victoria de hoy. Tenemos que jugar muy buen voleibol para ganar mañana. Contra República Dominicana tuvimos que luchar durante todo el partido, desde el primer set, que fue muy difícil. Pero al final conseguimos la victoria".

Alejandro González Rodríguez, opuesto de Cuba: "República Dominicana hizo un buen trabajo en el primer set. Salió con mucha emoción y estaba jugando bien. Lo hizo bastante bien, pero nosotros hicimos un mejor trabajo para ganar el primer set y el partido".

Canada beats Mexico to advance to Olympic qualification final

MONCTON, Canada, September 18, 2026. – Canada is one win away from a ticket to the Los Angeles 2028 Olympic Games after beating Mexico in NORCECA qualification semifinal action Friday.

Canada won 3-0 (25-21, 25-18, 25-13) in front of a friendly crowd at the Avenir Centre in Moncton, Canada, to advance to Saturday's final against the winner of Cuba vs. Dominican Republic.

The home side got off to a slow start, falling behind 14-9 in the first set. But the Canadians dug their way out of that hole and equalized 16-16 on Sharone (Sho) Vernon-Evans's kill, then scored nine of the next 14 points for the win. Canada was in the driver's seat from there, taking the second set comfortably and the third convincingly.

Canada dominated in attacks (42-31), blocks (8-0) and aces (8-2) en route to victory. The Canadians boasted the top four scorers. Eric Loeppky, named best spiker at this week's NORCECA Men's Continental Championship, led the way with 17 points, followed by Sho with 13. Jackson Howe (three aces) and Stephen Maar chipped in 10 points each for the winners. Fynn McCarthy added seven points, following up his best server award with a match-high four aces.

Mexico's Diego González – the top scorer in the continental championship – and Fuentes shared the scoring lead for Mexico with eight points each. Jesus Izaguirre had nine digs.

Dan Lewis, Canada coach: "This was the last step before our final goal, that we want to be in the final. You knew that Mexico after a day of rest, their nervous systems would be a bit fresher and they were going to have a better serving game and take more risks. It was really important for us to understand that there would be that initial storm of aggressive serving and if they got hot like they did, you have to be able to weather it. Keep your cool, return some pressure on serve like we did, and then continue to identify the opportunities to take points. That's exactly what our team did so I was really happy for them. After that we switched and had more service pressure on them. We started to dig balls and that really put them at a big disadvantage. I'm super happy for the guys. They've executed everything they've needed to do up until this point. Now they need to rest and prepare for the final."

Xander Ketczynski, Canada: "Mexico fought hard, but our guys showed up to play, they battled, they executed and we played the way we're supposed to, the way we practised all summer. Our hard work showed today."

On the team's mindset for the final: "Just keep playing like ourselves. It's just another volleyball game. Sometimes at these big moments you can get a little bit ahead of yourself but at the end of the day, you got here for a reason, you've got to keep performing that way."

Canadá vence a México y avanza a la final del clasificatorio olímpico

MONCTON, Canadá, 18 de septiembre de 2026.- Canadá quedó a una victoria de conseguir su boleto a los Juegos Olímpicos de Los Ángeles 2028, tras vencer a México este viernes en las semifinales del Clasificatorio Olímpico NORCECA.

Canadá se impuso 3-0 (25-21, 25-18, 25-13) ante el apoyo de su público en el Avenir Centre de Moncton, Canadá, para avanzar a la final del sábado, donde enfrentará al ganador del encuentro entre Cuba y República Dominicana.

El conjunto anfitrión tuvo un inicio lento y llegó a estar abajo 14-9 en el primer set. Sin embargo, los canadienses lograron recuperarse e igualaron el marcador 16-16 con un remate de Sharone (Sho) Vernon-Evans. A partir de ese momento, sumaron nueve de los siguientes 14 puntos para llevarse el set. Canadá tomó el control del encuentro desde entonces, ganando el segundo set con comodidad y el tercero de manera contundente.

Canadá dominó en puntos de ataque (42-31), bloqueos (8-0) y servicios directos (8-2) para asegurar la victoria. Los canadienses ocuparon los primeros cuatro puestos entre los máximos anotadores del encuentro. Eric Loeppky, elegido mejor atacante del Campeonato Continental NORCECA Masculino de esta semana, encabezó la ofensiva con 17 puntos, seguido por Sho con 13. Jackson Howe, con tres aces, y Stephen Maar aportaron 10 puntos cada uno. Fynn McCarthy sumó siete puntos y, tras recibir el reconocimiento como mejor sacador del campeonato, registró cuatro aces, la mayor cantidad del partido.

Diego González, máximo anotador del Campeonato Continental, y Fuentes compartieron el liderato ofensivo de México con ocho puntos cada uno. Jesús Izaguirre registró nueve defensas.

Dan Lewis, entrenador de Canadá: "Este era el último paso antes de nuestro objetivo final, que es estar en la final. Sabíamos que México, después de un día de descanso, llegaría un poco más fresco físicamente, con un mejor juego de saque y dispuesto a asumir más riesgos. Era muy importante para nosotros entender que habría una presión inicial con saques agresivos y que, si entraban en ritmo como lo hicieron, teníamos que ser capaces de resistirla. Debíamos mantener la calma, responder con presión desde el saque, como lo hicimos, y seguir identificando las oportunidades para conseguir puntos. Eso fue exactamente lo que hizo nuestro equipo, así que estoy muy contento por ellos. Después cambiamos la dinámica y comenzamos a ejercer más presión con nuestro servicio. Empezamos a defender balones y eso los puso en una situación de gran desventaja. Estoy sumamente contento por los muchachos. Han ejecutado todo lo que necesitaban hacer hasta este momento. Ahora deben descansar y prepararse para la final".

Xander Ketrzynski, Canadá: “México luchó con intensidad, pero nuestros muchachos salieron a competir, pelearon, ejecutaron y jugamos de la manera en que debemos hacerlo, como lo practicamos durante todo el verano. Nuestro trabajo dio frutos hoy”.

Sobre la mentalidad del equipo para la final: “Simplemente seguir jugando como sabemos hacerlo. Es otro partido de voleibol. A veces, en estos momentos importantes, uno puede adelantarse demasiado a los acontecimientos, pero al final del día llegaste hasta aquí por una razón y tienes que seguir rindiendo de la misma manera”.
