U19 Coaches looking forward to competing for Worlds' berths

BURNABY, Canada, May 11, 2026.- The U19 NORCECA Boys' Continental Volleyball Championship gets underway this week Simon Fraser University (SFU) in Burnaby, British Columbia, Canada.

Four berths to the U19 World Championship are at stake, as eight teams compete from May 12 to 17.

The head coach of each team explains the importance of this tournament in the following statements:

Panama's Head Coach Alexis Bernal: "This is the first time that Panama is competing at the U19 level at the NORCECA Championships. Our expectation is to reach our best possible game level with the goal of winning a medal."

USA Head Coach Andy Read: "USA Volleyball's U19 team is excited to be here in Canada. Thanks to Volleyball Canada for hosting such a great event. Obviously, we want to win the gold medal and qualify for World Championships. Our team is ready to go!"

USA has multiple weekends throughout the year to help train and select guys. And then we got together just over a week ago at the National Training Center in Anaheim (California) and trained there before arriving here in Burnaby."

Puerto Rico's Head Coach, Herman Ommy Torres Calvo: "We are bringing a young group, gold medalists of the past U17 event in Nicaragua and we want them to compete here at an older level in preparation for our next competition, the World Championship in Qatar."

Dominican Republic Head Coach Francisco Jose Lerebours: "As a federation we've been giving opportunity to young boys, projecting them for the future; Under-17 players from last year alongside Under-19 players. We have a plan with these young players to achieve a strong result, enjoy themselves, gain experience, and build up competitive exposure for the future events they will take part in."

Costa Rica Head Coach Robertocarlo Arguello: "We come with high expectations, knowing there are four spots available for a World Championship. We weren't able to fully consolidate the team 100%, but the players who are here come with the mindset of doing the best job possible, giving their all to prove why they are in this tournament at this moment. We want to compete, and we are prepared to do so."

Barbados Head Coach John Stuart: "I expect our guys to do well. With a number of qualification spots available (for the U19 World Championships), that is an incentive for them to do even better. So I expect a high level of volleyball."

Canada Head Coach Adam Schriemer: “The big thing is that we are aware this is a qualifier for the World Championships - that’s something on our minds and we are excited for the opportunity to compete together for the first time. As well we are aiming for the podium! We had a short amount of time together, so I’m curious about how good and far this group can get this week.”

Entrenadores U19 con la mira puesta en la clasificación al Mundial

BURNABY, Canadá, 11 de mayo de 2026.- El Campeonato Continental NORCECA Sub-19 Masculino inicia esta semana en la Universidad Simon Fraser (SFU), en Burnaby, British Columbia, Canadá.

Cuatro cupos al Campeonato Mundial Sub-19 están en juego, mientras ocho equipos compiten del 12 al 17 de mayo.

Los entrenadores principales de cada equipo explican la importancia de este torneo en las siguientes declaraciones:

Entrenador de Panamá, Alexis Bernal: “Es la primera vez que Panamá compite en la categoría Sub-19 en los Campeonatos NORCECA. Nuestra expectativa es alcanzar nuestro mejor nivel de juego con el objetivo de ganar una medalla.”

Entrenador de Estados Unidos, Andy Read: “El equipo Sub-19 de USA Volleyball está emocionado de estar aquí en Canadá. Gracias a Volleyball Canada por organizar un gran evento. Obviamente, queremos ganar la medalla de oro y clasificar al Campeonato Mundial. ¡Nuestro equipo está listo!

Estados Unidos tiene varios fines de semana a lo largo del año para entrenar y seleccionar jugadores. Luego nos reunimos hace poco más de una semana en el Centro Nacional de Entrenamiento en Anaheim (California), donde entrenamos antes de llegar aquí a Burnaby.”

Entrenador de Puerto Rico, Herman Omy Torres Calvo: “Traemos un grupo joven, medallista de oro del pasado evento Sub-17 en Nicaragua, y queremos que compitan aquí en una categoría mayor como preparación para nuestra próxima competencia, el Campeonato Mundial en Catar.”

Entrenador de República Dominicana, Francisco José Lerebours: “Como Federación hemos estado dando oportunidad a jugadores jóvenes, proyectándolos hacia el futuro; contamos con jugadores Sub-17 del año pasado junto a jugadores Sub-19. Tenemos un plan con estos jóvenes para lograr un buen resultado, que disfruten, ganen experiencia y sumen roce competitivo para los futuros eventos en los que participarán.”

Entrenador de Costa Rica, Robertocarlos Arguello: “Venimos con altas expectativas, sabiendo que hay cuatro cupos disponibles para el Campeonato Mundial. No pudimos consolidar el equipo al 100%, pero los jugadores que están aquí vienen con la mentalidad de hacer el mejor trabajo posible, darlo todo para demostrar por qué están en este torneo en este momento. Queremos competir y estamos preparados para ello.”

Entrenador de Barbados, John Stuart: “Espero que nuestros jugadores lo hagan bien. Con varios cupos de clasificación disponibles (para el Mundial Sub-19), eso es un incentivo para que lo hagan aún mejor. Así que espero un alto nivel de voleibol.”

Entrenador de México, José Eduardo Millán Lanz: “Nos sentimos preparados después de diez días de preparación en Tijuana, donde tuvimos un alto volumen de partidos de preparación. Es un equipo con una mentalidad muy fuerte y una gran disciplina táctica. Estamos listos para representar a México y buscar uno de los cuatro cupos al Campeonato Mundial 2027.”

Entrenador de Canadá, Adam Schriemer: “Lo principal es que somos conscientes de que este es un clasificatorio al Campeonato Mundial; eso está presente en nuestra mente y estamos entusiasmados por la oportunidad de competir juntos por primera vez. También aspiramos al podio. Tuvimos poco tiempo juntos, así que tengo curiosidad por ver qué tan lejos puede llegar este grupo esta semana.”
