In the third set, Trinidad and Tobago's attack was clearly superior, allowing them to cut the deficit. The Trinidadians maintained their offensive pressure in the fourth set to even the match and force a tiebreaker.

Nicaragua regained its level in the fifth set, although Trinidad and Tobago kept the battle close until the final points. The Nicaraguans eventually sealed the victory 16-14.

Despite the loss, Trinidad and Tobago held the advantage in the main team statistics: attacks 62-58, blocks 13-8 and aces 7-4. However, Trinidad and Tobago committed more unforced errors, 30 to Nicaragua's 22.

Three Nicaragua players scored in double figures: Josué León with 22 points, Devin Taushaun with 17 and Jafrank Quesada with 10.

For Trinidad and Tobago, Jahreef Miguel led the offense with 24 points, including three blocks and three aces. Michael Burkett added 18 points, Janeiro Atherley 16 and Ayden Austin 15, including three blocks.

Osmar Peralta, Nicaragua libero: "It was a very nice tournament and at the same time quite difficult. We came with a very young team. We came here to give it everything we had, and we're happy with seventh place because I think it opens the door for future generations."

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador, September 26, 2026.- The United States became the first team to advance to the Men's U23 Pan American Cup final after defeating Mexico 3-0 (25-19, 25-21, 25-20). In just its second appearance in the tournament, the United States advanced to the gold medal match for the second consecutive time.

Mexico started the match with plenty of power, while the United States gradually evened things out before taking the lead at 14 and building a comfortable advantage to close out the first set.

In the second set, the United States found its rhythm and became more effective in attack. Opposite David Decker, who had been relatively quiet offensively in the opening set, began to make his presence felt and contributed to the U.S. dominance.

The story did not change much in the third set. The United States maintained its strong attack, while Mexico displayed a solid technical and tactical game but was unable to contain the Americans' power.

The United States held the advantage in attacks 40-29 and blocks 7-3, while also leading in aces 5-3. The teams were close in unforced errors, with the United States committing 25 and Mexico 23.

U.S. opposite David Decker once again stood out with 21 points and was the only player in the match to reach double figures. For Mexico, Bryan Vásquez and Eduardo Garza finished with nine points each.

The United States awaits the winner of the semifinal between Guatemala and Costa Rica in the gold medal match. The bronze medal match is scheduled for 2:00 p.m., followed by the gold medal match at 4:00 p.m. Sunday's schedule begins at 12:00 p.m. with Dominican Republic facing El Salvador for fifth place.

Nicolette Sanlin, head coach of the United States: “I'm happy to be back for year two. We still have a lot of energy, we're in sync and there's more to give, so I'm excited to see that tomorrow against our next opponent. It'll be another good match tomorrow. We're not done yet.”

Jair Morales, head coach of Mexico: “We played a good match, although we made some errors from the service line. The United States is a very strong opponent, with a lot of height and power. We weren't able to counter that the way we would have liked, and that was the difference.”

“The team has improved as the tournament has progressed. Now we're waiting to see who our opponent will be in the bronze medal match, and we're very focused on getting onto the podium.”
